The Seagram Stable

The Seagram string arrived at the Woodbine Tuesday in charge of Trainer Barney Littlefield, and are quartered at the extreme east end of the track. There are fourteen in the string and they look to be in the best possible condition. They have had no fast work at Waterloo, but have had plenty of good, stiff galloping and are now in shape to let down for fast work. Jockeys Fryer and Rey, both apprentices, but who have ridden with considerable success, are with the string and will do the riding for the stable. The lot are:

Rustling, b f, 5, by Marta Santa-Frou Frou.

Dark Rosaleen, br f, 3, by Havoc-Irish Lass.

Meissen, b f, 3, by Inferno—Royal China.

Vastatio, b g, 3, by Havoc-Devis.

Froissant, b g, 3, by Havoc—Frou Frou.

Sea Lord, br g, 3, by Ypsilanti-Sea Wall.

Ypsilon, b g, by Ypsilanti-Chinka.

Sir Lancelot, b g, 8, by Ypsilanti-Delores.

Maid of Frome, br m, 4, by Havoc-Frome.

Puritan Lass, b m, 4, by Ypsilanti-Puritan.

Golden Jug, ch c, 2, by Havoc-Cruich d'Or.

Charon, ch c, 2, by Inferno-Irish Witch.

Smithfield, br c, 2, by Havoc-Martyrdom.

Torn Silk, b f, 2, by Havoc-Frou Frou.

The stable has five entries in the King's Plate—Dark Rosaleen, Meissen, Vastatio, Froissant and Sea Lord. The two-year-olds are a particularly good-looking lot. Smithfield, by Havoc, is a fine type of the thoroughbred, as is also Charon, by Inferno. In fact the string all through are a grand lot, and Trainer Littlefield should have considerable success with them this season.

The Syracuse Entries

With 177 entries received, the New York State Fair has established a new record for early closing races on the Grand Circuit. Each of the ten classes for which entries were invited have been filled and the full $36,000 offered for this branch of sport at the big exposition will be paid as scheduled.

Although a large patronage was expected, even those best informed of the horse situation hardly thought such a large number would come in for the races. The response, however is looked upon as a justification of the liberal offer made by the authorities in this city.

The prize event on the program, the Empire State stake of $10,000 for 2:14 trotters, attracted the entry of twenty-four horses. Last year this same stake brought forty-eight entries, but the return this season is considered satisfactory because of the change in the conditions.

Last year the stables could enter one horse for a payment of 3 per cent and any number of others for 1 per cent. This season on each horse entered the full three per cent must be paid unless the owners declare out after the first and second payments have been made.

Twenty-four entries have been placed for the Syracuse $5,000 stake for 2:11 pacers. This is considered one of the richest races ever offered and will be watched with unusual interest.

What promises to be the greatest race at the fair is the free-for-all pace, for which a stake of $5,000 has been offered. Twelve horses each of which is known throughout the country, have been entered. In the past it has been the custom to make the free-for-all pace a sweepstake event with a certain sum added money. The change is thought a good one by the horsemen.

Four Syracuse horses have been entered in the various events. The Syndicate stable has entered Baron Alcyone in the 2:08 pace and the 2:11 pace. Colusa, the big black pacer, owned by Wm. Cahill, has also been named for these two events. Both horses are now being trained by Havis James.

George D. Sherman has entered two horses, Sherman Audubon and Edward Audubon, in the Geddes 2:19 trot.

The largest single entry is that made by Thos. W. Murphy of Poughkeepsie. He has named twenty-four horses. Walter R. Cox is in the list with sixteen and Edward Geers with fourteen. All the other large stables are also represented.

Of the entry lists announced thus far this year the Syracuse list is the largest. Kalamazoo has 124, Grand Rapids 128 and Pittsburgh 126. Two of the classes failed to fill heavily and it was feared for a time that they would be canceled. Because of the support given the other classes, Commissioner Jones decided to carry the weaklings at a loss. The complete list of entries follows:

ROYALLY BRED TROTTERS FOR SALE

Mr. Andrew Cunningham, 758 Bathurst St. Toronto, is offering for sale in this issue the seven-year-old bay mare, Lady Bingen, by Fritz Bingen 2:16¼ and her two foals Sadie Parker and Miss Bingen McKerron. Sadie Parker is a two-year-old bay filly by Judge Parker 2:09½ and is a splendid individual. She is nicely broken, knows nothing but trot and will make a fast mare if properly handled. The second filly is a very nice one, fourteen months old and well broken. She is by the extremely fast and hand some trotting stallion, Jack McKerron 2:07¼ and has all the earmarks of a fast trotter. All Mr. Cunningham's time is taken up with his business and while these are not cheap horses they can be bought well worth the money. Consult the advertisement and write for full particulars.

PACER FOR SALE

Billie Sims 2:13¼, b g by Guy Rex, eligible to the 2:15 class according to the new rule. He is eight years old, sound and right in every way; good mannered, always on the pace and game as ever looked through a bridle; easy to train and drive and can go any kind of footing. A sure meal ticket and one of the best pacers in sight in his class. He has been miles in 2:10 on several different occasions over half mile track. This horse is being trained by Mr. Chas. Dennis at the Dufferin track and will be ready to show at any time. My only reason for selling him is that I am racing Grand Opera through the Grand Circuit and expect to be away most of the time and cannot give him my attention. Get busy quick as I am going to sell him. For further particulars, price, etc., apply to S. A. Proctor, 115 Dovercourt Road, Toronto, Ont.
