

On Sunday, September 12, the Japanese party will travel to Niagara Falls and will be guests at a luncheon hosted jointly by the Canadian and Ontario Governments. On Sunday evening, Mr. Sharp will host a welcoming reception for the visiting Japanese Ministers. On Wednesday, September 15, the Japanese delegation will travel to Vancouver, where they will remain overnight before returning to Japan on Thursday the 16th.

The Meeting will be the sixth of its kind since the Committee was established during a visit to Canada in 1961 by the Prime Minister of Japan. Its first meeting took place in Tokyo in January 1963, and it has alternated between capitals ever since, the last meeting (the fifth) taking place once more in Tokyo. The meeting in Toronto will be the first to take place outside of a national capital.

The opening session, which will be open to the public, will be at 10:00 a.m., Monday, September 13, in the Confederation Room of the Royal York Hotel. Although the remainder of the meeting will be closed, press briefings will be given twice daily on Monday and Tuesday. The final press conference will be at 5:00 p.m., Tuesday, September 14 in the Confederation Room, Royal York Hotel.
