

addition to the scene and will, I know, enhance these activities. I know that the Canadian Business Association of Singapore will continue its positive role and I wish to thank the Association, not only for today's gracious hospitality, but for the contribution it has already made to furthering trade and commerce between our two countries.

Thank you.