

spirit of understanding and cooperation between all the people of Canada; we must have a spirit of understanding and cooperation between all branches of government in Canada. To that end I am suggesting that we should call as quickly as possible a dominion-provincial conference. If this national government does its part with this conference and the failure and disappointments of the past are forgotten I am satisfied that the people of Canada will be quick to judge if there are still around at conference tables those who are more interested in playing politics than in playing ball with the rest of Canada.

Coming as I do from Ontario, one of the richest provinces of this country, I want it to be known unmistakably that, no matter how we may have been misunderstood, no matter how we may have been misrepresented, we in Ontario are ready and anxious to throw in our lot as Canadians with our fellow Canadians from coast to coast in a united effort to build a better Canada.

On motion of Mr. MacNicol the debate was adjourned.

It being three minutes after eleven o'clock, the house adjourned, without question put, pursuant to standing order.
