There may be a chance
yet but I am not building on it.

I hope I will be able to get him into McGill.

It seems no preference is given to returned men's sons.

After all Horace
can't be very dull, when we consider that,
although he was kept
out of school a year,
yet, at the age of 17
he has passed his first year in art.
