

Sir Arthur W. Currie, C.C.M.C.,

McGill University,

Montreal.

- 2 -

he possess experience and qualifications which would enable him to be considered as a future Superintendent in the event of that office becoming vacant at any time in the future.

The Directors of the Institution fully appreciate the special qualifications required for the position and are prepared to make proper and satisfactory allowance in the way of remuneration.

As the matter is somewhat urgent, your early attention will be greatly appreciated.

Yours faithfully,

Vice-President.

AAM/LJ