

comes. The people are disheartened and disgusted, and many of them have left the Church.

Gentlemen of the Synod, this is the story of the Mission of Stirling. You are the supreme power in the Diocese, if you choose to assert your rights. Do you know of any remedy in this case, or preventative that the like may not occur again?

GEO. E. BULL,
JAS. BOLDRICK,
Churchwardens,
St. John's Church, Stirling.

STIRLING, 13th November, 1878.

The above document was submitted to a full informal Vestry of St. John's Church, on 12th Nov., and a resolution carried unanimously that the Churchwardens have it printed and distributed to all the clergy and lay members who compose the Synod of Ontario Diocese.
