

« fect, I consider that he has had the courage
« to approach this matter in a thoroughly
« statesmanlike manner and has looked upon
« the claims of all parties from an unprejudic-
« ed point of view. »

This article was written by Mr. Owen :

The same Mr. Owen who is now so prominent in decrying the proposed system of to-day.

What made Mr. Owen conclude in November last that my suggestions were good, and a great advance towards a settlement of this troublesome question, and to say to-day, that they are ridiculous, etc., etc. If Mr. Owen will look up the Soleil of Quebec, Nov. 25th, 26th and 27th, and compare my remarks with those made in the House during the last Session, he will see that they are exactly the same and he will also see in what a ridiculous position he has placed himself, when he will compare his present Pamphlet with his article just quoted. Would Mr. Owen be kind enough to give us an explanation ?

I fail to understand why the Representative of the Province of Quebec Limit Hold-