

BRITAIN TO KEEP GRIP ON GERMANY.

Firm Refusal Will Be Reply
to Note From Washington.

WILSON DISCREDITED

London Spectator Makes Stinging Comments on Attitude of U. S.

LONDON, Nov. 12.—"The American note causes us little concern as Englishmen," says The Spectator, commenting on the recent note of the United States to Great Britain relating to interference with American trade. "His harsh and unsympathetic tone will not make us relax in the slightest degree the grip on the throat of Germany which our sea power gives us. We shall answer the note politely, but that shall answer it firmly. That we must do whatever the consequence, but there will be no consequences."

The Spectator believes the majority of Americans would not tolerate seeing Great Britain stabbed in the back. It does not believe President Wilson will mix the problems of munitions and contraband, and it refuses to regard America as a purely foreign country.

Moral Issue Ignored.—The paper continues: "When history comes to be written, Americans of the future will feel anything but proud when they remember the official action of America during the great war. They will note how, first, it consisted in maintaining a rigid neutrality on the moral issue—the brutalizing of Belgium, as Col. Roosevelt called it; further, how the Washington government bore the outrages committed by the American subjects, like the sinking of the Lusitania, until the sinking of the British navy had abated the underwater menace; and again when in the supreme moment of England's agony they thought they had found certain technical infringements of their rights they vehemently pushed their paper case and declared: 'We must save our lives and our honor, and free the world from the inhuman tyranny of Germany and Germany without treachery upon America's grass plot or scorching a little point of her garden fence.'"

German Plotting.—The Spectator says the British have not torpedoes American ships, nor have they killed American citizens. The British embargo has not been the centre of plots and conspiracies; yet when the whole tone of the notes to the United States is considered, it is much less friendly toward Great Britain. Referring to the sinking of the Italian steamship Ancona, The Spectator says that unless the championship which the executive has assumed to rescue goods and lives from the hands of human beings, it ventures to suggest that Washington at least repeat the Lusitania warning.
