

want anything, for, "my cup runneth over." "Wherefore," enquires one, "doth the Lord make your cup run over, but that others might taste the liquor?"

10. Though the past has been crowned with blessings and victories, the enemy would sometimes get us to fear it will not be quite so good in the days to come. But I shall not want anything in this life, for, "surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life." Says one: "All God's children have two footmen, goodness and mercy, coming on behind them."

11. But what about the long ages of eternity—shall I never know one single want forever? No, I shall not want anything through all the ages to come, for, "I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever."

So we have in this Psalm :

1. Perfect satisfaction—not want.
  2. Perfect rest—lie down.
  3. Perfect peace—waters of quietness.
  4. Perfect communion—restoreth my soul.
  5. Perfect walk—paths of righteousness.
  6. Perfect consecration—He anointeth, etc.
  7. Perfect song—my cup runneth over.
1. With me—the Lord.
  2. Beneath me—green pastures.
  3. Beside me—still waters.
  4. Around me—enemies. Also Psa. 34:7.
  5. Before me—a table.
  6. After me—goodness and mercy.
  7. Beyond me—the house of the Lord forever.
