

The Candidate is here invested with the Emblems.

The Candidate shall then rise up, and the Master say :

Brother, you have been weighed in the balance, and not found wanting, therefore, it has been judged right that you should be advanced to the Purple Order of our Institution ; in which dignity we trust that your better means of serving this religious and loyal Brotherhood will be duly employed. And, as your opportunities will now be advanced with your station among us, so likewise would your neglect, cause our more especial injury. For this cause, Brother, increase in your diligence ; be instant in season and out of season ; for the higher we stand, the more should we take heed lest we fall.

Here the Master takes the Candidate by the hand and says.

In the name of the Purple Brethren, I bid you heartily welcome ; nothing doubting but that you will continue with the greater earnestness to fear God, to honour the Queen, and to maintain the Laws.

The Chaplain, or Master, shall then say :

LORD, watch over this our Brother ; teach him to keep sacred his vows, that his name may be found inscribed in the book of remembrance at the end of time. All this we ask in the name of our blessed Lord and Saviour.—Amen.
