

SECTION IV.

Any member or subscriber keeping a work longer than the time specified therein, shall be fined three cents for each week it is so detained, and when two fines shall have been incurred, the Librarian shall inform the party thereof in writing, by post or otherwise; and in case the Book is not returned, and the fines paid, he shall report the same to the Library Committee.

SECTION V.

Illustrated works of value (of which a list shall be kept by the Librarian) will not be allowed to be taken from the Library unless the applicant produce an order for the same from a director. Works marked as works of reference will not be allowed out under any consideration.

SECTION VI.

A blank book shall be placed in the Library, in which members may recommend any work for purchase, subscribing their own names thereto; which work shall be added to the Library, should the funds of the Institute allow of it, and the directors approve of the same.

SECTION VII.

All books must be returned to the Library by the first Monday in May, in each and every year, from which time the Library shall remain closed until the Monday following, so as to enable the Directors to make the examination required by By-Law No. III., section 4, sub-section 9; and any member or subscriber retaining a book in violation of this section, shall pay a fine of twenty cents.

SECTION VIII.

The Reading Room shall be kept open every day, Sundays excepted, from half-past eight o'clock a. m. to ten o'clock p. m.

SECTION IX.

A daily register of the periodicals received shall be kept in the Reading Room, for the information of Visitors.

SECTION X.

Any member may introduce a stranger, not a resident in the City, to the Reading Room for a period of one week; the name of such visitor, with that of the member introducing him, being first entered in a book provided for that purpose.
