subject connected with the objects of the Institute. A similar letter may also be transmitted about the middle of the session, with the addition of any new questions that may have been brought forward and accepted ; and at the end of the session, a list of questions shall also be sent to all the Members, in order to collect information during the recess. Each letter shall contain a list of the written communications that have been made to the Institute.

IV. The minutes of discussion that are taken by the Secretary, resolutions that are passed, reports of committees, and a copy of all the circulars or other printed papers sent out by the Council, shall be carefully pasted in a book in the order in which they occur, that they may be preserved as the original records and transactions of the Institute.

V. It is expected that any gentleman addressing the meeting shall stand for this purpose, in order to prevent interruption, and to command the attention of the meeting ; and the person first rising shall have the precedence in speaking, upon which, if there is any doubt, the Chairman shall decide.
