

- Winslow, Rev. Miron, his Tamil-English Dictionary, iii. 411; his eminence as a Tamil scholar, iii. 414.
- Winsor, Justin, his "Narrative and Critical History of North America," and "Life of Christopher Columbus," iii. 362, 365, 371.
- Winsor, Rev. Richard, recipient of the Kaiser-i-Hind Medal, iii. 453; Mrs. Winsor, iii. 109.
- Winston, Rev. W. R., his "Four Years in Upper Burma," ii. 442; in illustration, ii. 442; mentioned in list of missionary authors, iii. 409, 445.
- Winter, Mrs. R. R., commenced zenana work in Delhi, ii. 255.
- Winthrop, Governor John, missionary zeal of, iii. 370.
- Wishard, Dr. J. G., ii. 415.
- Wishard, Luther D., i. 17; his tour of investigation through mission fields, iii. 140; his visit to Japan in 1880, iii. 159; his visit to South Africa in 1896, iii. 164.
- Wistar, Edward, his favorable testimony concerning American missionaries in Turkey, ii. 54.
- Witchcraft, in Africa, i. 198-201, iii. 292; the spell of demons in pagan realms, i. 198; as a religion, i. 200; the malign power of obeahism, i. 201; soul-hunting in the South Seas, i. 202; belief in demon possession among Asiatic peoples, i. 209.
- Witchcraft Suppression Act (1895) of the Government of Cape Colony, i. 201.
- Witch-Doctor, demoniacal arts of the, i. 194.
- Without the Camp, ii. 433, 434, 435, 437, 440; iii. 154.
- Wogale, Edwin, his successful evangelism in Vanua Lava, ii. 18.
- Wolcott, Rev. Samuel, his contribution to English hymnology, iii. 409.
- Wolfe, Ven. Archdeacon J. R., ii. 127; Chinese hymns written by, iii. 196; his Chinese Dictionary, iii. 413.
- Wolseley, Sir Garnet, ii. 345.
- Woman and Womanhood, status of, outside of Christendom, i. 104; signs and tokens of the low estimate placed upon, i. 104; her deprivations and restrictions, i. 107; her indignities and burdens, i. 109; result upon her personal character, i. 112; much, however, may be said to her credit, i. 112; degrading slavery of, in Mohammedan lands, i. 391; the value of her service in foreign missions, ii. 46; the elevation and education of, a notable aspect of mission progress, ii. 177; valuable results of female education in India, ii. 180; the elevation of, a prominent subject of discussion in the new "social movement" in India, ii. 181; the progressive native press a spirited advocate of a higher life for, ii. 183; the growth of societies in India for the advancement and culture of, ii. 185; the quick response of Indian girls to these new opportunities, ii. 185; the life-story of Krupahai (Mrs. Sathianadhan), ii. 186, 187; the growing distinction of the Christian women of India, ii. 188; a higher destiny for Chinese women, ii. 189; an era of Christianized womanhood begun in China, ii. 192; medical honors for Chinese women, ii. 192; benefits which Christianity is bringing to the women of China, ii. 194; a new type of, in Japan, ii. 195; the social prospects of, a live question in present-day Japan, ii. 196; the phenomenal development of female education in Japan, ii. 200; a romantic chapter of brightening prospects for Korean women, ii. 201; the beginning of a better day for, in Moslem lands, ii. 202; decisive changes in public sentiment and social customs with regard to, ii. 203; some gold of pure womanhood from mines of African heathenism, ii. 205; a happier and nobler life for rescued womanhood in the islands of the sea, ii. 207; efforts for female education in the West Indies, Mexico, and South America, ii. 208; widowhood, alleviating the social miseries of, ii. 238-250; mitigating the enforced seclusion of, ii. 251-258; first efforts for female education in India, iii. 10, 11; special provision for the education of, in Japan, iii. 51; the Y. W. C. A. in foreign lands, iii. 142, 143, 152, 153, 155, 158, 162, 165, 166, 170; illustrations of Y. W. C. A. work, iii. 146, 152.
- "Woman in Missions," quotation from, ii. 255.
- Woman's Auxiliary of the Wesleyan Mission, ii. 426.
- "Woman's Auxiliary (P. E. M. S.), St. Mark's Church, Cape Palmas, Africa," illustration, i. 104.
- Woman's Board of Missions (A. B. C. F. M.), "Medical Missionaries" of the, illustration, i. 423.
- Woman's Christian Temperance Union, i. 90; ii. 105, 121, 123, 147, 271; iii. 118.
- Woman's Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Mission, Peking, ii. 364, 365.
- Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, ii. 193, 422, 441; iii. 114.
- Woman's Medical College in Pennsylvania, ii. 187, 193.
- Woman's Medical College of the New York Infirmary for Women and Children, ii. 192.
- Woman's Missionary Association of the United Brethren in Christ, ii. 421.
- Woman's Missionary Friend, The, ii. 193, 194, 246, 250, 365, 366, 407, 440, 441; iii. 338.
- Woman's Union Missionary Society, ii. 421, 422, 424, 451, 452.
- Woman's Work for Woman (title now shortened to Woman's Work), i. 101, 210, 218, 262, 318; ii. 23, 61, 122, 133, 206, 216, 273, 346, 359, 380, 400, 415, 478; iii. 222, 538.
- Woman's Work in the Far East, i. 127, 213, 317; ii. 221, 264, 355, 359, 361, 362, 364, 366.
- Women of India, The, i. 119, 120, 121, 122, 123, 125, 127.
- Women's Anti-Opium Urgency Committee, i. 17; ii. 127.
- Women's Missionary Association of the Presbyterian Church of England, ii. 53, 422.
- Wong, Miss Marguerite, ii. 193.
- Wong, Pastor, in illustration, i. 80.
- Wonsan, ii. 425; iii. 337.
- Wood, Sir Charles, his Despatch on Indian Education, iii. 15.
- Wood, Mrs. George, iii. x; her aid to the industrial department of Gerard Institute, iii. 120; in illustration of Orphanas at Dar es Salaam, iii. 502.
- Wood, Rev. Thomas B., ii. 124.