overturn being repulsed, the so-called judges proceeded to put on the improper names.

A row was then precipitated and after an exchange of courtesies that would not appear well in print, counsel for Smyth withdrew, leaving the enemy to do as they pleased.

Twenty-five affidavits handed to Judge and of them by Mr. J. H. Kewell, of the Ontario bar, the second in support of the names Smyth wished placed on the list were not forthcoming. The judges not being able to find them, it is openly suggested that they may have got into the hands of legal talent for Mr. Rogers, who are in constant communication with the several members of the board and from time to time coached.

The list were not finished here, the court having adjourned to take the session to-morrow, and will resume at 10 o'clock on Friday, where no doubt they will complete their job. It is to be hoped the missing affidavits will be found by that time.

SEE HEINTZMAN & CO.'S PIANO EXHIBIT.

It will be one of the things worth while missed if, before returning home, visitors do not carefully inspect the magnificent display of grand and upright pianos, and the new player-pianos being made by Ye Olde Firme of Heintzman & Co., to be seen in the manufacturers' building at the exhibition, and also in their new palatial warehouses, 138-150-157 Yonge-street.

PIANOS AT 75c A WEEK.

Would you not own a piano when one can be obtained simply on the understanding to pay 75c a week? This is the offer being made at the present time by Ye Olde Firme of Heintzman & Co., Limited, 138-150-157 Yonge-street. These are square pianos, all guaranteed in good condition and worked originally up to $600 and $700 each. The present prices run from $50 to $125, on these easy terms of payment. See them at the handsome new warehouses of "Ye Olde Firme."

Piano, figures, etc., successfully treated without an operation. Write for free booklet and references. Dr. Hawke, 21 Wellesley-street, Toronto.

less mismanagement of the Laurier Government. All such questions were, however, eclipsed by the issue of reciprocity. Canada was now a great, prosperous and wealthy nation. The aim of the United States Congress was to spread the doctrine of non-interference. The idea of congress was not to abolish the duties on a few natural products, but to draw Canada away from Great Britain.

Premier's Anti Imperialism.

At the imperial conference Sir Wilfrid Laurier threw cold water on the proposal that the British colonies should be consulted when treaties were made. While Canada would defend herself without the British navy, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Mackenzie King and his colleagues were taking the attitude that the Canadian navy might not be placed at the service of the empire in case of war.

The position of Mr. Russell on the navy question should not be ignored. When Mr. Monk moved a resolution against aid of any kind to imperial naval defence, Mr. Russell voted for the Monk motion and was the only member from Toronto who did so.

Fiscal Independence.

The question of reciprocity was a national issue, which could not be settled on the comparative prices of a few commodities such as pork and beans. Canada had been free since 1870 to make her own tariffs. Reciprocity would destroy this fiscal independence. The adoption of reciprocity would be the first step towards free trade, which would land Canada in 25 or 30 years in the United States. Reciprocity would interlock Canada's financial system with that of the United States.

Slippery Liberalism.

Hon. Dr. Fyne pointed out that the Liberal party had constantly changed its attitude respecting Canada's trade policy to the United States. He was confident that East Toronto would elect Mr. Kemp and again show its faith in the national policy.

Hon. A. B. Morine declared that the adoption of reciprocity would make Canada eventually a state of the U.S. In regard to the recent statement of Mr. Eckhardt it looked as if Mr. Eckhardt had taken Mr. Russell's measure for his political com. (Laughter.) The meeting closed with the singing of "God Save the King" led by Sergeant Creighton.

LISTLESS AUDIENCE AT THE LAURIER MEETING

Between 5000 and 6000 at Collingwood Gathering, But Half Were Indifferent Listeners.

COLLINGWOOD, Sept. 6.—(Special.)—To a gathering of between 5000 and 6000 people from all sections of the counties of Simcoe and Grey, Sir Wilfrid Laurier carried his message today.

The town was filled with people, excursion trains bringing crowds from Barrie, Orillia, Midland, Owen Sound, and other points. The principal street was gay with flags and streamers and citizens of both parties joined to do honor to the Liberal chieftain, who made his first visit to this section to-day.

Collingwood is the home of the biggest ship-building plant in Canada. The president of the company openly appealed for support for the Liberal candidate, Leighton G. McCarthy, but it is confidently expected that Major Currie, the late member, will largely increase the majority by which he was elected in 1908.

The Liberal leader's address inspired little enthusiasm. He spoke for an hour, but it was noticeable that half the audience listened with stolid indifference to his plea for reciprocity.

John Birnie, K.C., was chairman. Sir Wilfrid, he said, was "the leading statesman and most central figure in Canadian politics," and reciprocity the goal so long sought by Liberals and Conservatives.

Opportunity was knocking at the door of every farm house in Canada. The rich manufacturers, who had made millions at the expense of the masses, could well afford to say, "Let well enough alone." Mr. Birnie charged that the Conservatives had entered into an unholy alliance with the Nationalists, who wished to erect an autonomous French state and to sever the tie which binds Canada to the mother country.

Addressers were then given by three Liberal candidates in this district: C. W. Hartman, East Grey; F. W. Heron, North Grey; and Leighton G. McCarthy, North Simcoe.

Mr. McCarthy said he had met the statement on the influence of the cause Laurier is a Roman Catholic, he should not be supported. This was the invidious campaign being conducted by his opponents.

Major Hugh A. Currie read an address from the mayor and corporation. Dr. McFaul presented an address from the Liberal Association of North Simcoe; and David Williams read one from the Collingwood Liberal association.

The Liberal chieftain opened with the observation that Collingwood was not satisfied to leave well enough alone, but was forging ahead with the Liberal Association.

When Sir Wilfrid spoke to reply, a large section of the crowd waved their hats and handkerchiefs and cheered lustily.

MAY FORCE RAILWAY TO PROVIDE PROTECTION

Series of Fatal Accidents at Hamilton Station—Shunting of Cars a Menace.

HAMILTON, Sept. 6.—(Special.)—Oswald Gage, the 13-year-old son of Mrs. M. Gage, a widow, 876 Main-street east, was crushed to death by a freight car in the local Grand Trunk yards shortly after 12 o'clock last night.

Young Gage, with two older brothers, had spent the day at the Toronto Exhibition, and had just alighted from the Toronto train. As he was attempting to cross the tracks to reach the station he was struck by a shunting car and instantly killed. His head and arm being cut off by the wheels.

His brother and a number of other passengers narrowly escaped injury. An inquest into the boy's death will be held by Coroner McNichol next Tuesday evening. This is the second recent fatality at the Stuart-street Grand Trunk Station due to shunting of cars there, the other victim being the 3-year-old child of a Jewish tailor, who was passing thru the city.

The child was jolted from the platform of the car which she was boarding and ground to death beneath the car wheels.

Last night's fatal accident will probably have the effect of prompting the city to take some action to force the railway company to provide proper protection for passengers using the Stuart-street station. As conditions are there at present passengers are compelled to set on or off trains in an open yard, not help but go down before the wheels.

It is a wonder that serious accidents have not been more numerous.

Placed in Jail.

Henry James, Hamilton, 74 years old, this morning pleaded with Magistrate Jelfs to spare the life of "Ned," the faithful old dog which has lived with Gaston and his wife for the last 14 years. Ned's temper has not been mellowed by old age, and it was sworn that he had bitten a child without provocation. The magistrate levied a $10 fine, which he agreed to remit if Mr. Gaston kills the dog. A veterinary will send Ned to the undiscovered country from whose borne no traveler returns.

The small number of 18 registration appeals were decided by the board of appeal Monday. The results being that five names were struck off the lists, leaving the registration figures for the city 251. The appeal of the Conservatives against the registration of John P. Hennessey, Major MacLaren's campaign organizer, was also decided. The board has a business in Toronto, but maintains a home in this city. The appeal board is composed of Judge Snider, Judge Monck and Magistrate Jelfs.

Liquor Sold in North.

Serious complaints of alleged non-enforcement of the license law in Cobalt were considered by the Board of Control yesterday. Afterward the Presbyterian Church in Canada at their annual meeting Monday. A special representative will assist in the local option campaign in Alberta and special speakers will make campaigns in Ontario and New Brunswick.

The government will be asked by the board to treat all towns in the north alike, by abolishing the license law and strictly enforcing the law throughout the district at whatever cost.

Embalmers in Convention.

More than 40 delegates registered at the annual convention of Funeral Directors and Embalmers' Association, which held their first business session in the anatomical building in Queen's Park yesterday morning. Afterward by an instructive lecture was given by Prof. C. O. Dhanan, president of the Cincinnati College of Embalming.

President Dhanan explained the legislation enacted at the Ontario house last session, which provided for a board of examiners to issue licenses to candidates qualified to enter the profession.

At this morning's session Provincial Health Officer Dr. McCullough will deliver an address on the election of officers will take place.

PRESBYTERY TO RAISE $188,000.

For the various schemes of the Presbyterian Church during 1912, the Toronto Presbytery has pledged itself to raise $188,000, representing the share of the local presbytery of the $1,000,000 fund which the Presbyterian Church in Canada proposes to raise.

Rev. MacKay and Dr. Grant will leave at once on a tour of the Dominion, for the purpose of addressing the various Presbyterian Churches on this subject.

RUGBY GOSSIP.

Both Argonauts and T.A.A.C. held practices at Bayview Park last night, and a number of pigskin-chasers were out. Both teams claim strong line-ups for the coming season, and judging from the amount of early talk, Rugby in Toronto should again have a most successful season.

Charles Gage was out with T.A.A.C. and is expected to play with that club this season, as also are a number of ex-Varsity students.

T.A.A.C. practices again on Friday night at Bayview Park at five o'clock.

Troy's Fire Fighters.

With a population of 7,000, Troy is unique among the cities of its size in that it has a large number of volunteers. Out of a total of 128 men ready day and night to fight fires, only 75 are on the payroll of the city.
