HOT SHOT FOR MR. BOURASSA

"Wharf Rats," "Scavengers," "Buccaneers," Etc., Are Polite Terms Used by Kingston Paper.

KINGSTON, July 26 .- (Special.)-In a leading editorial to-day, The Kingston Daily Standard pays its respects to Henri Bourassa and his followers, declaring that they are "political wharf rats, who gnaw holes and scurry about in the depths, never accomplishing anything, but occasionally making great splashes, which end in the splash.

The Standard says there must be no truckling to them and they must be put in their proper places.

Apropos of Mr. Bourassa's recent ut-terance that a fresh dose of Artha-baska-Drummond might have a salu-tary effect, The Standard declares that Bourassa does not represent French-Canadian GRAND MAIS. WED. 250 ALL SEATS opinion, and says:

There is one way, and one way only to answer such an utterance and such a man. Premier Borden and the Conservative party, generally, must say to Bourassa, plainly, simply, emphatically—as indeed must the Liberal party or any party that is truly—as the content of the cont and imperial—that it will matter not a tinker's damn what he and his followers think upon the matter; that Canada will do its duty by the empire despite all the mutterings and all the threats of the Nationalists, and that there will be no truckling to them, ho kow-towing for the sake of their dirty votes—for dirty they would be if they were muddled over with treason, and if the price of them was failure to do our plain duty as citizens of the empire."
