OTHER EVIDENCE ON INSANITY IS BLOCKED BY OBJECTIONS

New York, Feb. 5 .- The task of proving to a jury that Harry Thaw was insane-thru heredity and mentral stress-when he shot and killed Stanford White, was taken un to-day by the defence in this famous case, but when adjournment was announced later in the afternoon it was the general opinion in the court room that but little progress had been made. Thaw's attorneys endeavored in vain

Ottawa, Feb. 5.-(Special.)-In the house to-day. Mr. McCarthy (Conservative, Calgary) precipitated a debate upon going into supply, by submitting an amendment in criticism of the Rob-bins irrigation grants. The grants were loaded down with promoters' profits, and the scheme, if successful, would lay a heavy burden upon the settler. Various companies had been organized. but they were apparently consolidated as the Alberta Land Company. Mr. as the Alberta Land Company. Mil-McCarthy pointed out that the area thus granted by the government was vast, convenient to Medicine Hat, and adjoining the main line of the C.P.R.<sup>A</sup> There were some provisions in the grant as to irrigation, but in effect the land was sold at $1 an acre. EXPERT VIEW OF THAW'S SANITY

Scarcely had court adjourned when there was a conference of the defen-dant's counsel and it became known that certain of the attorneys were not he dant's counsel and it became known that certain of the attorneys were not well pleased with the day's develop-ments. Delphin M. Delmas, upon leav-ing the court room, had declared flat-ly that he was dissatisfied with the day's proceedings, and intimated that he was surprised that the conduct of the defence, for the day, had been in-trusted to John B. Gleason rather than to himself. Dr. Wiley should not have been put on the stand to-day, Mr. jected.
