A Small Pill, but Powerrui.—They that judge of the powers of a pill by its size would consider Parmelee's Vegetable Pills to be lacking. It is a little wonder among pills. What it lacks in size it makes up in potency. The remedies which it carries are put up in these small doses, because they are so powerful that only small doses are required. The full strength of the extracts is secured in this form and do their work thoroughly.

Point No. 1-SERVICE.

Five Points About the Simpson Store

In all the plans of this store the public is first in the order of precedence. The store is a public convenience. It undertakes to supply the wants of the people and to do so in the best manner possible. This decides not only when they shall be served, but how, and while each member of the staff aims at the highest result in the matter of sales, NO ONE IS OBTRUSIVE TO CUSTOMERS.

Point No. 2-SAFETY.

In some stores the idea is that opposite interests are represented by opposite sides of the counter. Not so here. We know we cannot permanently secure your confidence by selling you what you will be sorry for having bought-for any article bought from this company, if returned promptly and in good condition, the money will be refunded. The intention is that you may send by any messenger-even a child-for what you need, with assurance that no advantage will be taken and that you run no risk.

Point No. 3-CO-OPERATION.

The natural outcome of our treatment of customers is, they co-operate with us to perfect the store. If dissatisfied to the smallest extent with any article purchased, or with the treatment shown by clerks, delivery men or other employes, we will consider it a great favor if you will state your case, writing on back of bill which you will find in parcel, and sending it to the office. We are anxious to make the store perfect in every particular, and customers will greatly assist the management by adopting the methods here suggested. All reports will be treated as confidential and will receive promote attention.

Charged With Fraud.

Some nine or ten years ago there came to Little York an Englishman by name James Nimrod Langridge, a carpenter by trade. He was a good workman and for a long time found plenty of steady work with good pay. In later years he acquired the habit of getting on the spree and soon became better known as "One-Eyed Jimmy." In consequence of this habit he lost the confidence of the people and they would not give him work. "However, he remained in this locality until a few days ago, when he suddenly left for parts unknown.

Point No. 4-COMFORT.

It is less fatiguing to shop in some stores than in others. Customers do not feel exhausted, even in hot weather, shopping in our light, airy, well-ventilated store. Where ceilings are low and air bad both customers and salespeople are glad to get out. None know better than our employes the benefit of our modern store-cool even when outside the thermometer is up in the nineties--pure, fresh air every day in the week, and to these comforts they respond with alert and loyal devotion to the interests of the store and with cheerful compliance to the wants of customers.

Point No. 5-ECONOMY.

After all is said your trade is sought here SIMPLY ON THE MERITS OF THE GOODS. Unless our values are right we know you will not continue to come. Unless your money goes farther here than elsewhere, quality of goods considered, we shall not expect you to come. Our store news is published for your information and you will find it strictly and literally true. Thousands know they can here buy economically not Dry

HIS FORTUNE A MYTH. James Nimrod Langridge of Little

cality until a few days ago, when he suddenly left for parts unknown.

Said He Had Come Into a Fortune.

A little over six months ago a story was put in circulation that "One-Eyed Jimmy" was to get a fortune from the Oid Country, coming to him from his father, who had died a short time before. The legacy amounted to $18,000 cash and £50 per year besides. He made arrangements with Mr. George Empringham to live with him until he got the money coming to him, which would be some time in July this year. He told the story so straight and so often that nearly every person believed it to be true. He was not slow to take advantage of the fact that he could get what he wanted, simply by asking for it. He paid particular attention to the hotelkeepers in this vicinity. He borrowed money from any and everybody that would let him have it, always promising to pay them something for the accommodation when his fortune came.

How He Played the Part.

He was very anxious to secure investments in the shape of first mortgages on very easy terms, both as regards repayment and interest. He entered into partnership with a city contractor and inspected some gravel pits and decided to purchase one or two and pay cash for them. The papers are now awaiting signature and the arrival of his fortune.

He came to Toronto one day last week and returned to Little York with the information that his money had arrived, and imand returned to Little York with the information that his money had arrived, and immediately he produced cheques and paid everybody their claim in full. The next day it was discovered that the fortune was a myth. The Dominion Bank did not have an account under that name, they did not know anything of such a person.

Upon enquiries being made in the city from his brother it was learned that his father is still alive and is not likely to leave him any legacy at all. This is as far as he is aware of. The brother does not think that his father has any fortune to leave.

Some of Those He Fleeced.

Some of Those He Fleeced.

"One-Eyed Jimmy" has a wife and three children in England.

The following are among those who placed too much confidence in his story: Mr. Geo. Empringham, board and lodgings, $250; Mrs. Hackett, $60; John Evans, $46; F. Gilding, $22; J. Lambert, $203; E. Sanderson, $25; Baliey & Martin, $50; C. Heber, $15; S. Harris, $30; R. Crew, $30; A. C. Stoba, $15, besides several rallway men, some varying from $25 to $40 each.

A warrant was desued for his arrest, and last evening he was arrested by County Constable Walter Stewart at Shaw's Hotel, Eglinton.

Vised by two of his medical relations of over 1200 miles. The other was a gentleman in this city, and, although a desperate case, we succeeded with both parties. If those who are ruptured would only get a suitable truss in the commencement they would save themselves much suffering, and many more would get cured. We warrant all our trusses.

Don't Forget To-Day's Auction Sale of Bicycles.

To-day is the date set for the unreserved auction sale of Griffiths' bicycles, including Leaders, Skylarks, Triumphs and Beeston Humbers. The sale, which will be held at 285 and 235½ Yonge-street, will commence promptly at 2.30 and will be confinued in the evening at 80 clock. This will be the last chance of securing one of these reliable wheels at your own price, as the sale will be absolutely without reserve. Purchasers will run no risk in selecting any wheel offered, as each machine is being fully guaranteed for the year 1898, and coming from so well-known and reliable a firm as the Griffiths' Cycle Corporation, this guarantee is worth a hundred cents on the dollar. The firm evidently have the fullest confidence in the quality of their machines, as it is the first time in the history of the bicycle trade that wheels have been soid at auction with a guarantee. Don't fall to attend this afternoon's sale, as it is probable that all the wheels will be sold before the evening.

Changes in the S. A. Sinff.

By a late re-organization of the Salvation Army staff in Canada, Brigadier Complin has been promoted to the position of general secretary, and Brigadier Gaskin, who held this position. Will take charge of the Central Ontario division. The editor about to assume office is Brigadier Friedrich, a German, and until now a major, who accompanied Miss Evs Booth as secretary on her recent Klondike trip.
