Insolent Presumption.

It is insolent presumption for a man to make no provision for wife and children and then hypocritically pretend that he is contented at his death to cast them on God's care.

Is it not now within the reach of any man in good health, by taking part of his yearly income and paying it into the Manufacturers' Life Insurance Company to make sure, should he be called away, no matter how early, that some modest yet adequate provision shall come to those he leaves behind?

There are other companies, but if you have a policy in the Manufacturers' Life you know you have the best and most liberal one issued by any company.

We, or our agents, count it no trouble to furnish you with rates and other particulars. A post card giving your name

A Piece of Pure Carelessness.

"A few days ago, while dining with a friend, I observed that she declined the coffee, and, upon enquiry, learned that she was one of the big army of highly organized Americans with whom coffee plays all kinds of havoc. I suggested Postum Food Coffee."

"That's too wishy washy for any use, did you ever try it?" she said.
"I knew from experience where her trouble was, and replied, 'You nave failed to learn the truth about one of your truest rierds, and have, therefore, misjadged at friend grieviously. It is plain that unever tasted genuine Postum, provided, it is flat enough ed, and exquisite value he."

Nova Scotia Conservative Picnic Was First Running of the $20,000 Matron Interfered With by the Clerk of the Weather.

He told the audience that a leading Canadian, who was a Liberni candidate at the last election, and spent some $50,000 in the Liberal cause, had wired him, offering him financial and moral support in the task of turning out the present Government. The people, said Sir Charles, were only awaiting finother opportunity to turn them out. He said he was sure an early election would occur.

The Government, he said, wants to hold it on the same day as the Manitoba and Ontario elections, in order that they may snatch a verdict before the corrupt acts in those provinces are fully brought to light. Sir Charles claimed that Minister Biair was not telling the truth when he said the extension of the Intercolonial into Montreal increased the traffic and receipts of the rallway.

DR. TOMKINS' LECTURE

Was Not Largely Attended Osgoode Hall Testerday, But Was Interesting.

The first of his series of lectures on "Roman Law and the Bible," was delivered vesterday afternoon by Dr. F. J. Tomkins, M.A., D.C.L., of London, Eng., in Osgoode Hall. There were not many present, but those who were could not but have been impressed by the very masterly address. Dr. Tomkins is one of the grand old men of England, whose ability has been recognized on both sides of the Atlantic by his appointment to the highest offices in law and historical associations.

In his address yesterday several subjects were considered, viz., Arrest in Transitu, Arrest of "Christ, Christ, Christ Under Examination. Christ's Trial Before Pilate and Paul's Trial Before Festus.

To-day he will speak on Recapitulation, Adoption and Stewardship, while on Friday the subjects will be, Recapitulation, Hership, The Parable of the Vine Dresser, Freedom and Conclision.

The lectures are open to the general public, do not last longer than an hour, commencing at 4.30 p.m., and should be particularly interesting to the clergymen of Toronto.

to Meet Bennett. Tom McCune, the Detroit welterweight, Tom McCune, the Detroit weiterweight, arrived in the city yesterday morning, and is now comfertably quartered at John F. Scholes' Athlete Hotel, Yonge-street. He shows no signs of the recent illness that compelled him to ask for a postponement of the battle with Bennett, and, besides, looks prosperous. Since his contest here last Thanksgiving Day McCune has engaged in 10 important battles around Chicago, and has a little nestlegg laid away. He has lived well the past year, and will enter the ring next, week' in altogether different shape to that of his last meeting with Bennett. The lads are both so confident of winning that little time was lost last night in signing the articles. Both were willing to the Crescent A.C.'s division of the purse, and they will go 20 rounds at catch-weights. At Bennett's suggestion a light bandage on one hand was allowed.

They are having some trouble in Detroit in getting a man to stand before Bennett, and Otto Selloff may be substituted for Tom Jenkins, either of whom should be easy for the McKeesport boxer. Bennett will leave here for Detroit Sunday, returning on Tuesday.

McCune will train from Scholes' place with Pat Kilty, who is matched with Fred Dwyer of Ottawa for the 10-round preliminary. On defeating Bennett, he asks for a match here with Eddle Connolly or Mattle Matthews. His only reverses in the West, where he can get matches any time, were to Walter Nolan and Jack O'Brien, in six and twelve rounds, and McCune has good and twelve rounds, and McCune has good reasons for both losses.
