stem of the San Pedro was smashed do splinters, one of her masts was snapped off at the deck, she was settling, and she had a heavy list when taken in tow. Capt. Hansen remained on board. The Daisy Mitchell offered assistance to the Elder, but this was declined. She picked up a lifeboat and a raft of the Columbia and brought them to this city.

Near the scene of the wreck the Roanoke picked up a life raft and found underneath it the dead body of a passenger, supposed to be Richard Butler, of Portsmouth, N. H. The officers of the Merchants' Exchange in this city, and of the various newspapers, have been besieged since early morning by relatives and friends of the Columbia's passengers, but the insistent and tearful requests for information of the victims and the rescued remained unsatisfied.
