GERRY'S ROSEBUD WAS FIRST IN DEMOSELLES STAKES AT EMPIRE

Outsider Cleans Up on Feature at New York.

New York, July 17.—Robert L. Gerry's colors were seen in front for the first time this season, when his filly Lady Rosebud won the Demoiselles Stakes at Empire City yesterday.

The victory was entirely unexpected, as Lady Rosebud was one of the outsiders in a field of five, which benefited two added starters in Joyful and Auntie. The fact that Lady Rosebud is a half-sister to the great handicap horse, Old Rosebud, did not gain her much support, but she proved her gameness when pitted against Kiss Again in the final sixteenth.

Auntie was away flying, and opened a big gap, only to be overtaken before the turn by Joyful and Kiss Again.

Lady Rosebud rushed up on the bend and, though Kiss Again got her head in front in the dash through the stretch, she weakened at the finish and Lady Rosebud squeezed home first by half a length.

The only other event which brought out horses of any class was the Tuckahoe Handicap at 6 furlongs—in which Lady Rosebud's half-sister, Kiss Again, won by a good margin.

Sportstets BY REX.

Baseball is an essential occupation, rules a draft board, and is ready to take to them as patriots.

There are about three classes of people in the United States who are ready to believe that the national game is essential to the welfare of the country. These are the players themselves, the club owners and the peanut and popcorn specialists.

Certain ardent fans will have no means of voicing their stock of misinformation if President Wilson releases the players to the dustman. The subverted of their expletives will have to be either their wives or their cooks.

If baseball is necessary, why not highball?

Time was when puritanical golfers gave 10 cents to their caddies every time they used a cuss-word. A few well-to-do and the practice had to be stopped.

The man who said that golf was a gentleman's game never could have the experience of "going the round" with "gofers we have down."

The pitcher "over there." Give me a stick of dynamite inclosed in a tin-can. Give me some lead to feed my little gun.

I'll show you the range of Boedmond and help the Allies beat the boastin' Hur.

Install me in a pill-box with some balls that's made by Mills. And you can bet before the minute grows I'll find the "Garnes" location with my fatal little pistol.

And argue in the only gab he knows.

ASKIN STREET BOYS TAKE FIRST OF THE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

Defeat King Street Nine at Springbank by 12 to 2.

Askin Street Elks cleaned up on the first of a series of three ball games at Springbank Park yesterday, trouncing the King Street nine by a score of 12 to 2. One more victory and the Askins will have capped the championship of the S. E. Inter-Church League.

As winners of the western series they backed up against the King Street nine, who are out on top in the eastern series.

The ground was wet, which made the fielding of both aggregations unusually slow. However, for King Street, dispirited and crestfallen, they were out of the game. Lewis of the winners was in fine form, holding his own for the whole game. In the pinches he was invincible.

The all-round work of George F. Baker and six men, who were quite the fielding of both aggregations usually slow. However, for King Street, dispirited and crestfallen, they were out of the game. Lewis of the winners was in fine form, holding his own for the whole game. In the pinches he was invincible.
