SWITCHMEN'S UNION

Chicago, April 12. — Developments west of Pittsburg in the switchmen's unauthorized strike today were regarded by railroad brotherhood officials as pointing toward a gradual dissolution of the insurgent forces, but in the east, where the walkout was joined in several districts by trainmen, the situation assumed a more serious aspect.

In the central and far west, numerous reports of defections from the strikers' ranks followed the report of the first important break at Columbus, Ohio, where 600 switchmen voted to return to work.
