NOTE AND COMMENT

In commenting on the Capital-Tecum-eh fiasco of a week ago, The World had cause to ask:

The proper answer to which reads, "It is not," and that they are not the same sure-thing gamblers, etc. We have come to this conclusion, after reflection, on the receipt of a letter from an Ottawa law firm representing the Capitals. The World has no means of proving the statement quoted above, which we must retract expressing regret therefor.

The verdict at Montreal will induce the Tecumsehs to ask: What should we have done? Of course the answer is: Lined up before the referee and had Kearns award them the game. In which case, as sure as fate, the alleged magnates of the N.L.U. would have ordered the game over again; for did not President Thompsen declare the grounds unfit for play. This professional lacrosse business is an awful tangle, and the more you handle it the worse it gets. Sure, the past presidents are glad they have retired.

According to foreigners must all tank the English amateur oarsmen and boutlers, who keep everything selves in this section of the Olympiad.

All the trouble in magland over Longboat was because the Yankees declared the Indian was a pro because he participated in an unsanctioned meet in Boston, tho the show had the endorsation of the Canadian Union. The latter body replied that the A.A.U. had been a transgressor by issuing permits for Crystal Beach, which is in Ontario near Ridgeway, and once more the interlopers are showing their hand, according to the following, issued by Edward Reinecke of Buffalo, commissioner and handicapper for A.A.U., in Western New York:

The Leander crew led all the way. They were a length and a half in front at the half way, and continued gradually to widen the gap. The magnificent spurt of the Belgians toward the finish resulted only in a mcmentary gain of a few feet. The home crew went away again and finished easy victors.

The outcome of the contest was a great surprise, as this morning any of the experts had practically conceded the race to the Club Nautique de Gant. It was a battle of styles, the orthodox long stroke, well driven home, of the British carsmen against the short, light and fast stroke, without any swing, which twice has carried the Belgians to victory in the grand challenge at Henley.

Had the Leander crew been defeated, British carsmen were prepared to haul downn their flag and take lessons in rowing from their foreign/competitors, but to-day's victory leaves all Englishmen convinced that the old A.B. R. H. O. A. E. Queen City.

Only Sixteen Shots Difference--- Torontos Play at Cornwall-Lacrosse News and Gossip.

Torontonians will be given an opportunity to see the new world's champions in harness to-day, when they stack up against Tecumsehs at the island at 4 o'clock, just after the completion of the ball game. The teams:

Westminster—Goal, Gray; point, Galbraith; cover, T. Gifford; defence, J. Gifford, G. Rennie, T. Rennie; centre, Feeny; home, C. P. Letham, O. Wontennite, A. Turnbull; outside, C. Spring; inside, J. Bryson.

Tecumsehs—Goal, Clark; point, Griffiths; cover, Graydon; defence, Pickering, Davison, Rountree; centre, Felker; home, Querrie, Merton, Gilbert; outside, Durkin; Inside, Adamson.

Referee—Thomas Carlind. Judge of play—Eddie Baker.

Tecumsehs will have a hard game to-day, and just as hard a one on Monday, when they play Torontos at Rosedale for the city championship.

Three games are scheduled in the N. L.U. to-day, as follows: Shamrocks at Nationals, Torontos at Cornwall and Montreal at Ottawa.

The reserve seat plan for the To-ronto-Tecumseh game Monday at Rese-dale will be on sale till noon at 189 Yonge-street. Get your seats early. The Tecumsehs are negotiating with Billy Backus, the crack home-fielder of the Shelburne intermediate team, and it is just possible that this player will be given a try-out here in the near future.

A Cornwall despatch says the Torontos and Cornwalls will play a league match in Cornwall to-morrow afternoon, and it will no doubt be a very interesting one. Both teams have a chance for the championship. Their standing in the league is exactly the same, and the loser to-morrow will in all probability lose their chance for landing the pennant. The Cornwalls are in splendid shape for the struggle, and a great exhibition of lacrosse may be looked for. The Cornwall team will be the same as played in Ottawa last Saturday.

The Young Toronto team to play the Maitlands to-day will be: Goal, Mitchell; point, Rowe; cover, Madill; first defence, Hunter; second defence, Jacobi; third defence, Davis; centre, I McArthur; third home, W.McArthur; second home, Murphy; first home, Armstrong; outside, Heal; inside, Tod.

St. Simons and Reg. N. Boxer play at Norway on Saturday in the final game of the Inter-Association Lacrosse League. St. Simon's team will be picked from the following, and will meet at the Woodbine at 2.30 sharp: Maclean, Walton, Morrison, Haight, Lepper, Beaton, Westman, Stinson, Dopp, Cowan, Wilton, Boehm, Marks, Tackaberry, Hill and Bell.
