GO TO THIS ONE GOOD AND STRONG.—Pay no attention to his previous races. A good price cannot be obtained on a horse that always runs up to his notch. The people who have this horse in charge are aware of that fact. They are in the game solely for the betting end of it. They bet only when they get a good price and are dead sure that their horse is good enough to go to the front at flag-fall and remain there until the finish. They have watched every horse work and race that is pitted against their trick to-day, and figure that they have everything else as good as beaten before they go to the post. This is YOUR ONE GRAND OPPORTUNITY to get in right with the insiders and wind up the Hamilton meeting a big winner.
