Plan as Outlined is Fair to All Parties-Big Day in Stouffville-Suburban News

NORTH TORONTO, July 12.—(Special.)—Councillor Howe, discussing the vote to be taken on Saturday on the parallel roads, and the sewerage bylaws, said that his experience was that the bylaws were being opposed more by large holders of property than by the small holders, where actual opposition was in sight, small holders being generally favorably inclined tobeing generally favorably inclined to-ward both the bylaws.

"This is an exceptional opportunity," ton, has returned from Gowganda, Councillor Howe said, "to get an equitable distribution for the payment for both of the proposals, the yearly payments coming out of the general tax rate, and thereby putting the burden mainly on those who are well able to meet the cost. Referring to the question of the parallel roads, Mr. Howe remarked that the keenest opposition and in fact the only real opposition he had met came from Mr. Warren, who lived in Eglinton and thru whose property the road would pass.
