ARMOR HEIGHTS CAMP TO GET WATER SUPPLY

Board.

At a special meeting of the York Township Council, an agreement was signed with the imperial munition board, by which the aviation camp at Armour Heights, on the Robins property in the township, will obtain a supply of water. Eight thousand feet of 24-inch main has been laid down to the camp and the munitions board agrees to turn over to the township, if the township cares to exercise the option, the main free of cost at the close of the war.

A second agreement with F. B. Robins was ratified, whereby Mr. Robins and other parties may obtain a supply of water for his own purposes under rules and regulations the township may determine, so long as there is a large entered. termine, so long as there is a large enough supply for township purposes.

STOUFFVILLE TAX RATE.

Council Fixed Rate at Twenty-Seven Mills Last Night.

A special meeting of the Stouffville Council was held last evening, when Reeve J. H. Ratcliffe and the council tussled with the question of the tax rate for 1917. After considerable discussion it was finally struck at 27 mille, the same as that of last year. Reeve Ratcliffe stated that, notwithstanding the extra expenses on account of the war, it was thought the viliage would get along very nicely on the same amount as last year. The decision was greeted with intense satisfaction by all.

Purpose and Scope of New Organization.

An enthusiastic meeting of the Great War Veterans' Association, Earlscourt

An enthusiastic meeting of the Great War Veterans' Association. Earlscourt branch, was held last evening in Earlscourt school, North Dufferin street. The object of the gathering, as explained by the chief speaker. Lieut. H. E. Machell, was for the purpose of reorganization.
He pointed out that the chief alm of the essociation was to win the war.
"The second aim is to replace ourselves in France, and this is to be brought about by conscription; the third aim is to prepare a place for our men now overseas when they return to Canada.
"One of the schemes proposed." continued Lieut. Machell, "is an employment bureau with a complete index of returned men and their qualifications for various positions. We will not furnish any returned man, but a suitable man for the vacant position, and men now holding down jobs will have to go to the war to open vacancies for the returned soldier."
Continuing, Lieut. Machell pointed out that the Great War Veterans' Association was not a charity organization.
"When properly organized from coast to coust." he said, "there is no government or association who will dare to give us a raw deal, and we will tell any political organization to go to hell who tries to influence us in any way.

Non-Political Organization.

"We are non-political, non-partisan, and are purely a democratic civilian organization. We will keep absolutely clear of politics, and we intend to look after the dependents of the men killed in action and at present overseas. The political situation is at present in a critical state, and we intend to get our demands attended to by the government, and no case of a grievance brought before the association will be passed over. Every dependent of soldiers can apply for redress to us. We want every man who has served with the alless at he fron
to, join us, and we are going to demand that every eligible man in the municipal,
provincial and Dominion governments'
employ and the patriotic fund office be kicked out, and you are the men to take their places." conclud

at Yonge Street Crossing.

Andrew Sdezialia, an Italian, about 70 tyears of age, owning an extensive farm of about 290 acres near Holland Landing, was struck and instantly killed by a Grand Trunk train from Toronto to North Bay yesterday, about 11.45. Sdezialia was returning in his buggy from Newmarket alone, and was crossing Yonge street, at the east of the station, at the landing, and did not notice the sproach of the flyer. He was struck and hurled a distance of 150 feet, the buggy being smashed to firewood and the horse killed. The body was taken to Kilkenny's undertaking parlor at Bradford, and a inquest opened by Coroner Dr. Wesley of Newmarket. No evidence was taken, and the inquest was adjourned until next Wednesday, when it will be seopened at Holland Landing.

Sdezialia is survived by his wife, who is at the present time seriously iil, two sons at home, one employed at the Holt-Renfrew Fur Co., Toronto, and another one a street car conductor, Toronto.

BEACH WASHED AWAY

From Overhanging Cliffs, Liable to Slide.

Owing to the sand bars having been taken away by the "sand-suckers" there is very little beach this year at Scarboro, and as a result the cliffs are exceedingly dangerous to the trippera, and especially those in boats are warned to keep away as far as possible from the overhanging cliffs. Near the bluffs, especially where the shore has been washed away, the trees are oyerhanging in many places and are wable to fall at any moment, and after rain the spot is exceedingly dangerous. No precaution has been taken to project the public, and altho so far no accident has been recorded it will be as well for those who visit this spot not to venture too near.

TO BUILD NEW BRIDGE OVER MERCER'S CREEK

Contract Has Been Awarded and Work Will Be Commenced in Few Days.

In place of the old cedar bridge northeast of Locust Hill, in Markham Township, it was decided at a joint meeting of county officials to build a modern concrete bridge 18 feet by 14 feet. Plans were ordered, so that the work may be completed by fall.

The contract for the bridge over Mercer's Creek, between Etoblcoke and Toronto Township, was let at $800. It will be of concrete, with a span measuring 12 feet and width 14 feet. Work on it will be commenced at once, so that it will be ready before the winter comes.

LEAPOLLO INQUEST AGAIN ADJOURNED

Nothing of Importance Develops at Second Sitting of the Jury.

QUARRELS WERE HEARD

Two Men Shouting in Foreign Language Disturbed Nearby Resident.

Further evidence was heard last night in the Orange Hall, Humber Bay, by the jury under Coroner C. Riker, into the circumstances surrounding the death of Tony Ross Leapello, who was brutally murdered on Salisbury avenue on Friday, July 20, but nothing of any importance developed and another adjournment was made until next week to allow the police to make further investigation. In asking for the adjournment County Crown Attorney Greer stated that the crime was a most extraordinary one and that the police had made every effort to zecure more information.

According to testimony submitted one man heard a quarrel in progress near his home, but early morning quarrels were quite frequent in the district, and for that reason he made no investigation.

Dr. Forbes Godfrey, Mimico, who performed the post-mortem examination, said that Leapello had been stabbed in fifteen places, death resulting from hemorrhage and shock. The worst wound penetrated fully three inches into the back, he said. Questioned by Mr. Greer, he stated that in his opinion a stiletto was the weapon used.

A regulation army knife, which was found some 300 yards from the scene of the murder, was produced, but Dr. Godfrey was certain the wounds could not have been caused by such a weapon. "I think the man who used the knife must have known his business," he said. "From the nature of the wounds, I think Leapello must have been lying on his stomach when struck."

must have been lying on his stomach when struck."

Heard Shouting.

George Brush, a market gardener, whose house is a short distance away from the place where the murder was committed, stated that on the morning in question he heard two men quarreling, but not thinking it was of a serious nature he determined to go to bed. The voices were highly pitched in excitement, but he could not understand what they were saying. He believed they were shouting in a foreign language. Mr. Brush declared his theory was that the people, after committing the crime, either by collusion or otherwise, used a car going east on Queen street to get away. According to his story he heard a car going at a high rate of speed shortly after 5 o'clock.

Mrs. Margaret Leapello swore that she married Tony Leapello on May 8, 1914, but he made no contribution to her support, and she finally commenced an action for annulment of the marriage. This was finally granted by the Buffalo ccurts.

Her father, R. L. Mulveney, declared that altho he was not altogether in favor of the marriage, he gave both a cheque for $50. When questioned by the crown attorney he stated that these gifts were not mentioned during the proceedings at Buffalo. Mr. Mulveney swore he knew nothing of the annulment action until told by his daughter that the case had been commenced.

At the regular meeting of the National Labor Council, held last night at the Temple Building, the chair being taken by J. Hincheliffe, the following officers by J. Hinchcliffe, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:
President, J. Hinchcliffe: vice-president, W. Pearce; financial secretary, C. Clay; recording secretary, J. Baker; treasurer, W. Van Loan.
Delegate Liorton of the Press Assistants' Union introduced the subject of the presence in Canada of a large number of allen enemies and citizens of allen countries, and moved a resolution that the The meeting of the central council of ratepayers' associations held in the city hall last night was devoted for the most part it a discussion of oleomargarine as an article of food, following the reading of a letter by Secretary W. F. Ralph, from S. E. Todd, chief the staff of the food controller, who replied to a letter from the association to Food Controller Hanna recommending that the manufacture of cleomargarine be permitted in Canada under government supervision.

The reply in part is as follows:
"Anythiag, which would injure the dairy industry would have a reflex action on the population of the cities that would be equally disastrous to the consumer. At this extraordinary time to allow the importation of margarine might be necessary. On the other hand, to create a condition that would result in the establishment of industries here in Canada with large capital invested, which later, when the price of butter and fats drop, as is probable after the war, might bring disaster upon one of the most vital industries of the Dominion."

The meeting did not agree with the sentiments at expressed by Mr. Todd, altho the members were not unanimous in their opposition.
