

Mammals of New Brunswick.

41

42. PORCUPINE. (Erethizon dorsatus.)
Common.

43. RABBIT. NORTHERN HARE. (Lepus americanus.)
Very abundant.

MARINE MAMMALS.

HARBOR SEAL. Common.

HARP SEAL. Occasional, in winter.

HOODED SEAL. A few have been observed along the Gulf of St. Lawrence coast.

PORPOISE. Common.

WHALES have been occasionally reported in the Bay of Fundy and off the "North Shore"; but the species are, for the most part, conjectural.

