Ottawa, August 16th, 1929.

Sir:-

I beg to refer you to your letter of May 23rd in which you stated that you had forwarded to the Department copies of the pay-list as soon as possible after you had received the blank copies. I might say that on May 22nd, 12 blank paylists were forwarded to you, so it is thought that you have now had ample time to make out the lists. Kindly give your prompt attention to this matter.

Your obedient servant,

A. F. MacKenzie

A. F. MacKenzie,
