Sousa Tickets Tomorrow 10 A.M.

The opening of the ticket sale for the engagement of John Phillip Sousa and his famous band at the Imperial Theatre after noon and evening the 23rd, will take place tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock at the box office. Those who sent in reservation cards will find their tickets awaiting them for payment. People who sent in their money in advance will receive their tickets by mail. There has been quite a steady demand for the seats already. Both afternoon and evening concerts will be on the reserve plan of seating, the matinee tickets ranging from $1 to $2; the evening seats from $1.50 to $2.50. As most people understand, the ample seating of Imperial Theatre is all very desirable for a big band concert such as Sousa's 70 players can render. The matter of choice is largely one of vision, not hearing. Box office open from 10 a. m. to 9 p. m. in the eastern lobby.

More Cheer and Charm in Rugs

Oh! How tired we are of those dull designs and dingy colors the Rug-makers have been serving us until lately.

How much happier the new way they just seem to scatter a few blossoms across a field of Fawn or Sapphire, or Taupe, or Royal Blue.

The Chinese inspiration! Anybody who has looked up Chinese Philosophy, Poetry or Art, will see how they can show the whole world all about flowers.

The powers of the Persians in contriving maze-like patterns is likewise reflected in the Marcus Rug Displays.
