

DEATHS

Rev. Thomas Albert.

Grand Falls, Nov. 16.—The death occurred here at 8 o'clock this morning of Rev. Thomas Albert, pastor of the Church of L'Assomption. Father Albert was stricken with pneumonia three weeks ago. From the first his condition caused grave anxiety but during the last week he was thought to be convalescing. On Friday evening last he suffered a relapse from which he did not rally.

Mrs. Amos Vernon.

The sudden death of Nancy, wife of Amos Vernon, of Minville, N. S., on Nov. 3, will be learned with regret by many friends in St. John and in Albert county. Mrs. Vernon was 65 years of age and had enjoyed excellent health up to the hour of her death. She is survived by her husband, two sons, Fred, of Minville, and Harold, of Vancouver, and three daughters, Grace, wife of R. H. Sutherland, Moncton; Betty, wife of Dr. J. A. Munro, Amherst; and Mary, at home. Rev. Mr. Baird, Church of England, assisted by Rev. Mr. Bent, Methodist, conducted the funeral service which was attended by many friends of the family from many parts of Cumberland county. The unexpected and early passing of Mrs. Vernon has come as a shock to the whole community.

Amos Vernon is a son of the late Edward Vernon, of St. John and Harvey, Albert county, N. B. Many of the older residents of St. John will remember the Vernon family.

Peter Devine.

The death of Peter Devine, of 29 Meadow street, occurred yesterday afternoon in the General Public Hospital, where he had been taken Saturday morning. Mr. Devine who was 67 years of age, had been in fairly good health until a few days ago. He is survived by three sons, Roy and John, at home; and Willard, of Boston; and two daughters, Mrs. William Thorne, St. John and Miss Florence Devine, at home. The funeral will be held from Mr. Devine's late residence, 29 Meadow street, tomorrow afternoon with service at 2:30 o'clock.

Miss Lillian J. M. Deinhardt.

Miss Lillian J. M. Deinhardt, beloved daughter of Rev. Thomas J. Deinhardt and the late Mrs. Deinhardt, died last evening after an illness of a few months. She leaves besides her aged father, who is a retired clergyman of the N. B. and P. E. I. Methodist conference, four sisters, Mrs. W. J. Wellington, of New York; Mrs. Ralph P. Bell, of Halifax, N. S.; Mrs. L. B. C. McMann, of Toronto, and Miss Hazel L., at home. Miss Deinhardt was a faithful member of Centenary church and had for years been one of the leading altos in the choir. She was one of the promoters of social service work among the less privileged girls of the city, and took great interest in the many endeavors that were for the betterment of the less fortunate girls and women. For several years she took charge of her home, when her mother's failing health and her father's infirmities made her duty at home the obvious one. With cheerful faith she declared her confidence in God to Rev. Robert G. Fulton, her pastor, when he called upon her yesterday, just before the end came. The service will be held in Centenary church on Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The body will be taken to Charlottetown P. E. I., where it will be buried in the family lot at Sherwood cemetery, on Wednesday.

Mrs. Florence Lockard.

Fredericton, Nov. 16.—(Special)—Mrs. Florence Lockard, wife of Eben Lockard, of Ruslingorish, died Saturday night at her home after a lingering illness. She was aged 82 years. Surviving are her husband, one daughter, Rosie, one stepdaughter, Katherine, and one stepson, Eugene. Other surviving relatives are her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Forbes, and a sister, Mrs. Walter DeWolfe, of Fernmount, and one brother, John Forbes, of Ruslingorish.

Roulez Tobias.

The death of Roulez Tobias occurred in this city on Saturday. He is survived by his wife, two sons, Thomas and Daniel, and one daughter, Violet, all residing in North Devon, and by his mother, Mrs. Frosina Tobias, and four brothers, Joseph, Raymond, M. Solomon and John, all of this city. The funeral will take place on Tuesday morning from the residence of his brother, Raymond M. Tobias, 18 Brunswick street.

Miss Jennie M. Sproul.

Sussex, Nov. 16.—The death of Miss Jennie M. Sproul occurred Thursday morning, Nov. 6, at her home, Sproul settlement, after an illness extending over several years. She is survived by
