LEATHER MARKET STRONG.

Western Conditions Recovering From Demoralized State.

Winnipeg, Man., Jan. 22.—Rural communities are beginning to feel the improved condition of the hide and leather market all over the prairies. Last year fifty thousand hides were permitted to rot between Winnipeg and Calgary, partially because there was no market, or what there was would realize but four cents. The prairies produce three-quarters of a million hides annually, but the greater portion grade No. 2. Today Montreal and Toronto are paying eight and a half and nine and a half for the two grades, f.o.b. at buyers' place.
Chicago buys the larger portion, but the difference in exchange is figured in the eastern Canada market to make the price identical. The small-town butcher on the prairie is netting six cents on 1 1/2 hides today on the prairies, and the marketing is strengthening. The peak of the market all over the prairies is now forty-eight, f.o.b. at the tannery. The market in Montreal was then a dollar a pound on the Winnipeg market, but it takes two pounds of hides to make one of leather. One western firm has been selling harness leather at fifty cents. It shipped a car of its hides to an Ontario tanner, who charged twenty-two cents for the car of hides and twelve tanners in the east who were asked for bids on this process for the western firm, but two refused, though most of the others were idle.
