asked. The belief grew, however, in the ab-sence of any talk of an immediate strike, that the union officials would submit the award, probably without recommenda-tion to a referendum of the men. A decision on this point was promised for today by W. G. Lee, Cleveland, grand president of the Brotherhood of Rail-way Trainmen. New York Series Approaches World Contest Games president of the Brothernood of Kall-way Trainmen. Railroad representatives accepted the award philosophically and immediately set about plans for passing the six hun-dred million dollars addition to their wage budget along to the utlimate con-sumer, in this case the man who pays the freight. Armed with reliable ad-vance knowledge as to what the award would provide, the railroads had their figures ready.
