Though the children have their play,
The sound of their joyous voices
Makes happy the summer day. Like a mist that slowly rises On a sunlit summer sea, So midst all their merry laught Come these tearful thoughts

And like a shower at noon-day
When the earth is parched with h
So our heavy hearts are lightened
By the pattering of their feet.

Come sit close beside me, children, In this dear old quiet room, Till we speak of one gone from us To the dark and silent tomb. She left us at the harvest time,
When the toilsome day was o'er
She grew weary ere the sunset
And we saw her face no more. But I know her hands were laden

And I hope, dear little children, That some of you by my knee May follow her sweet example In the years that are to be.

J. D. B. F. MACKENZIE. EARS FOR THE MILLION Foo Choo's Balsam of Shark's Oil Positively Restores the Hearing, and is the Only Absolute Cure for Deafness Known.

This Oil is abstracted from peculiar species of small Wattre Shark, caught in the Yellow Sea. known as Cancharoono Kondelerii. Every Chinese fisherman knows it. Its virtues as a restorative of hearing were discovered by a Buddhist Priest about the year 1410. Its cures were so nu.

Hear What the Deaf Say! It has performed a miracle in my case I have no unearthly noises in my head and l I have been greatly benefited.

My Deafness helped a great deal—think an ottle will cure me.

"Its virtues are unquestionable and its curative character absolute, as the writer can personal testify, both from experience and observation write at once to HAVLOCK & JENNEY, 7 Dey Stree New York, enclosing $1.00, and you will receive breturn a remedy that will enable you to hear life and you go to the service of the Only Imported by HAYLOCK & JENNEY
