CROWLEY HAS THE TOWN GUESSING.

GUESSING. "Have GUESSING. The H. H. H. big show made another and even greater hit than on the first night. The Berinis repeated their former triumphs and were finally com-pelled, after bowing several acknowl-edgments, to respond to an encore. Today instead of The Palms, Signor Berini will by request repeat Violets, with which number he was tremend-ously applanded last week. Music lovers should not miss this treat. Crowley? Well Crowley, repeated Crowley? Some say Crowley is a man impersonating a woman; others Crowley is a woman with a man's voice, others say Crowley formerly lived here on St.-St. Still others say Crowley is Lydia Dreams. Regarding this rumor the management of the H. H. H. will pay $50.00 to any charify in St. John if it can be shown that Lydia Dreams is not now appearing in the Other rumors Today Crow-ley will abpear in a bean-tiful lace dress made by Redfern of London, that will stattle the ladies. Crowley will also display new millin-ery. Three new pictures will be shown. The Unwritten Letter, a splen-did drama; Eloping With Aunty, the funniest comedy shown this year, and Two Memories, a drama with a strong moral. The last two pictures are the famous Biograph Co. Ladies and chil-dren's matinees at 3.15. Be early at inght. AT THE COOL PRINCESS:

Last night was a regular summer's night, but it was nice and cool at the Princess-not one bit warm, and the programme was never better. McKee, Richmond and Co, in Her Music Mas-ter, are a regular riot of fun. The aud-ience last night seemed as if they would never get tired hearing Mr. Richmond sing. He was encored re-peatedly. Lockhart and Randolph in their act are receiving well-merital applause. There is a complete change of pictures for new ones. POWERFUL BIOGRAPH FILM AT "STAR."

"STAR." The most popular pictures that come to St. John are those of the great Biograph Company and the latest drama from this source is a powerful moral lesson entitled "What Drink Did," which is to be the stirring first feature tonight and tomorrow night. It is safe to say this picture will simply cause a sensation and its wonderful dramatic force and pathos will strike many a "home" bloy. The Star has been complimented time and again for its strong moral pictures. The picture list is a long one, including also "A Friend in the Enemy Camp," "A Brave Irish Lass," "Free Soda Water," Fools-head Tries to Wrestle," "He Couldn't Lose Her." Al. Weston, balladist, and whis ening. ON. I up as itchwh ch v and Lose Her." Al. Weston, balladist, and good music. Orchestra again Thurs-RMAday.

TURNER'S PALETTE FOR SALE.

want LONDON, June 19-Some magnificent lighteenth century portraits by Eng-lightmasters are included in the col-lection of the late Sir John Milburn, the lection of the late Sir John Milburn, Bart, which is to come under the ham-mer next Thursday and Friday, at Christie's. On the same afternoon there will be offered several notable examples of Turner's work, while an interesting lot also, will be the palette which the famous artist used when painting at Chelsea. ll not You e air. -New
