WILL GO IN HEARSE INSTEAD OF ALMS HOUSE WAGON

Tramp Dropped Dead as He Was Being Made Ready for Trip to the Poor House

About 10.30 o'clock this morning while being made ready to go to the Municipal Home, Charles Ward, an old vagrant, dropped dead in his cell in the common jail.

Ward's age is put down on the police book as 57 years and early on Tuesday morning, August 24, was arrested by Policeman Crawford as a common vagrant with no visible means of support. The old man has been beating the railroads, tramping about all over the country and was unkempt and filthy. He was sent into jail as a remanded prisoner. This morning a coroner was notified and an enquiry may result.

BANK ROBBERS ESCAPED WITHOUT LEAVING A CLUE

Bills They Stole Cannot be Traced—Boy Only Person Who Saw the Robbers and He Could Not Identify Them

MONTREAL, Sept. 12.—The robbers who blew the safe at Yatchewitch have made good their escape and there is absolutely no clue. The bills they secured were of no series which could be identified. They were bill of all banks which had been deposited by the merchants and farmers and were of large denomination. The three men were seen by no one except a boy before the robbery and he is not sure that he could identify them. They kept the people back with revolvers, firing thirty shots and the roof people of the town kept indoors and made no attempt to chase them. They reached the railway track and were seen no more.

the defendant moved to another farm taking all her household furniture except what was contained in one room and leaving the plaintiff alone in the house. He continues, she charges, to use the farm, but will not give her any food that is fit to use and she is compelled to apply to her friends for the necessary supply. The plaintiff adds that she has always behaved as a faithful wife should.

COOK'S FRIENDS PREPARING BOOM-SHELL FOR PEARY

WILL MAKE SERIOUS CHARGES AGAINST THE COMMANDER AND HIS PARTY.

Bridgeman States That Peary and His Vessel Will Not Take Part in Hudson Celebration if Cook is Also Invited.

NEW YORK, Sept. 11.—The American today is authority for these statements: Since Commander Peary began his attacks on the veracity of Dr. Cook, the Brooklyn man's friends have been exceedingly active in securing ammunition for a counter attack. It was learned yesterday by American reporters that Dr. Cook's friends have prepared a bombshell which they plan to explode shortly after the arrival of Peary and Cook at New York. This takes the form of affidavits sworn to by Joseph White, who was a member of the Peary expedition, and by Rudolph Franke, who accompanied Dr. Cook. In these affidavits Commander Peary is accused of opening letters entrusted by Dr. Cook to Franke, his own employe, to bring back from the Arctic seas. These letters disclosed Dr. Cook's plans and progress towards the Pole. When Franke became disabled and left Dr. Cook, he started for home and left the Peary expedition on the way back and spent several days on the Roosevelt. Franke has sworn that Dr. Cook's letters were not only read, but changed by someone on the Roosevelt. An affidavit against Commander Peary's own party which charged against a man of Peary's character seem incredible, but they show the bitterness of the fight begun by Peary's attack on Cook.

The affidavits are now in the hands of John R. Bradley, left the Hotel Lorraine yesterday saying he would not return until Monday. Both White and Franke were charged by Bradley not to repeat the contents of their affidavits, but their purpose was ascertained by American reporters yesterday.

It is understood that the object of withholding the affidavits is not so much because Dr. Cook's approval is wished, but because his friends wish to question Peary's veracity regarding his reasons for leaving Peary's ship in mid sea for a slow going schooner. All the reported actions of Peary afford a mystery to Dr. Cook's friends and they believe his story will go a long way toward clearing up the rival claims of the explorers.

SIDNEY PREPARATIONS.
SIDNEY, N. S., Sept. 11.—Preparations for the reception of Commander Peary continue to occupy the attention of the public officials and business men. The city is preparing to receive the explorer with the greatest of honor. The city is preparing to receive the explorer with the greatest of honor. The city is preparing to receive the explorer with the greatest of honor.

WILL JOIN IN FULTON CELEBRATION.
SIDNEY, Sept. 11.—In reply to an application by Herbert L. Bridgeman, secretary of the Peary Arctic Club, for a position for the Roosevelt in the Hudson-Fulton naval parade, he received the following telegram from New York last night:

"Hud-Fulton celebration pleased to have Peary Arctic steamer to North Pole in parade. Heartiest congratulations."
(Signed)
"E. H. HALL, Asst. Secy."

BUT NOT IN COOK DOGS.
The probability is, said Mr. Bridgeman, that the Roosevelt will easily reach New York in time to participate in the festivities. Questioned as to the report that the yacht John F. Bradley, which conveyed Dr. Cook to Greenland, would be in the parade, Mr. Bridgeman said he had not heard, but of course she could be entered by her new owners. He declared, however, that if the Cook yacht was given a place in the parade the Roosevelt certainly would not participate.

Bridgeman also referred to Peary's fast return trip and accounted for the fact that he had no supporting party and must of necessity push on with all possible haste. The Record today will publish an interview with Captain Moses Bartlett of the schooner Bradley. Bartlett states that Cook was fully prepared for a dash to the pole and was positive that Cook was successful. He based his views on the fact that conditions were very favorable and that Cook's boat would enable him to push forward without having to skip any open water. The news that Cook will go back again for his Eskimos is hailed with delight.

PRISONER CLAIMS HE WAS ROBBED BY THE POLICE

In the police court this morning Charles Davidson was charged with profaning God's name on Brussels street. He was ejected from a house on that street and then had a few words with Policeman Marshall, during which the defendant used bad language. He was fined $5, which was allowed to stand against him.

Finley, arrested on Thursday for being drunk, claimed that the police had stolen money from him. He said he had eight dollars on him that the officer who arrested him took the money and in about ten minutes another officer came back and gave him two dollars. The officer who made the arrest told of the man being drunk and on the way to the lockup Finley said: "I'll make you suffer, you'll not get any money from me." All was taken off the man was a two dollar bill, which was given back to him.

The magistrate said that when a search was made an entry should be

PEARY WILL REACH SYDNEY ON TUESDAY

Fifty Special Correspondents Afraid They Will be Scooped—Captain Believes Cook Was Successful.

SIDNEY, N. S., Sept. 11.—All is bustle and excitement in the city today. Preparations are going forward to give Peary a great reception on his arrival, which is expected to occur on Tuesday or Wednesday. A wireless telegram station is Point Amour, and a report from there is eagerly awaited. It was expected tonight or early tomorrow, when several steamers start the race to meet Roosevelt. The Associated Press steamer is chartered and will likely beat out all the others. Great indignation exists among newspaper men over the action of the Associated Press in refusing to take them out. Some great scheming is going on and daring plans are being discussed. It is a general opinion that the Associated Press is trying to hog the story, and as matters now stand they will likely succeed. The civic reception tendered Peary will eclipse any thing ever seen here. The steamer is being decorated with British and American flags and arches are built along the principal streets.

Great excitement is manifested among the newspaper men here. About fifty outside men are prospecting for scooped. Rumors are rife of some big scheme on tap but no leak has been found.

Mrs. Peary, son and daughter, Marie, and Mr. Peary arrived last night and registered at the Sydney Hotel. Mrs. Peary, when interviewed, denied having made any statement reflecting on Dr. Cook. She was immensely pleased at this success, but hoped it would be his last trip. Mrs. Peary expressed regret at the unfortunate drowning of Ross Marvin.

The opinion here is evenly divided as to the claims of Peary and Cook. Some are inclined to doubt Cook's story, accept Peary's. However, the majority have not passed judgment.

MR. BRIDGEMAN AND OTHER MEMBERS OF THE ARCTIC CLUB ARE OVERJOYED AT THE SUCCESS OF PEARY'S STORY.

Mr. Bridgeman gave an emphatic denial to Cook's charges that Peary had stolen his provisions.

SIDNEY, N. S., Sept. 11.—Max Passerno, aged 35, an Italian interpreter employed by the Dominion Coal Co., was stabbed by another Italian named Nash yesterday afternoon and died at 10 o'clock last night. The murderer has escaped so far, but the police hope to arrest him during the day.

COPELAND BACK AGAIN FOR TODAY'S BATTLE

St. John and Moncton will meet on the diamond this afternoon at 2.30 in a double header. The Marathons will endeavor to land the provincial championship from the railway town aggregation. The Victoria grounds will be the scene of the battles and the reputation of the Moncton players as ball losers assures a fast and close exhibition.

D. B. Donald, the Greek's manager, is pleased to make the statement that Jack Copeland, who had been under suspension, will return to the team as soon as the fans will welcome the return of Copeland, as he is one of the fastest men on the Greek's team. With Eddie Small in centre field, the Moncton champions will find in the Greeks a tough proposition.

made in the police book of the arrest. It has become common talk about town that a man is kept in jail because he can't pay his fine and the police took his money from him.

The magistrate said it was unfortunate that there was no entry made regarding the search.

"Under the circumstances," said the magistrate, "as you have two dollars you can pay it for the fine."

The prisoner said he was searched in the cell and that he was on his way to the West End House to pay a week's board of four dollars.

The magistrate said that it looked as if the prisoner had money when he intended to pay his board, and where he was searched did not matter.

Henry Hilyard complained of George Kane's St. Bernard dog worrying his Irish terrier. The defendant was allowed to go on condition that he would take care that his dog would not do any more damage.

Two boys charged with fighting were allowed to go with a warning.

ORPHEUM.
The crowds that are flocking to the Orpheum testify to the popularity of the artists engaged there this week. The Madison Square Four winning by their high class work, the praise of all who have heard them. Allman in his tenor solo, and Curry, a basso selection, coming in for an unusual amount of praise from the audience. Errier, the Yiddish impersonator, has the rare gift of comedy without raucosity and is the spice of the act. The pictures are of a high order, the famous war picture, "A Man Without a Country" eclipsing anything of its kind in motion pictures.

During the past week twenty-four births were recorded with Registrar Jones. Fourteen of the number were females. There were thirteen marriages.
