PERSONALS

The "Contractors" met with Mrs. James Reith on Friday evening. Mrs. J. John E. Cade was a guest of the Club, and the prize was won by Mrs. Walter R. Clarke.

I. O. D. E. ANNUAL MEETING

Barrington Memorial Chapter, I. O. D. E., held its Annual Meeting on Tuesday afternoon, a large number being present.

The work of the past year was reviewed and it was found that much good work had been accomplished. The Chapter met all its obligations and in addition a great deal of local welfare work was done.

The Oratorical Contests in the High School were sponsored by the Chapter - one in English, and one in French - for which prizes were awarded.

A donation was given to the local private hospital to renew the bedding in the I. O. D. E. room, and a committee of ladies collected about 200 jars of jams and jellies for the hospital.

At Christmas time, dinners were provided for local soldiers' families. At the June School Closing, two prizes of $5.00 each were awarded to the pupils in Grades Eight and Eleven.

VAN BUREN

Marriage intentions of the following have been filed in the town clerk's office: Miss Rose Thibodeau daughter of Mr and Mrs Onisme Thibodeau of Van Buren and Mrs. Abel Theriault of Lillie; also Miss Annette Levesque daughter of Mr and Mrs Frank Levesque of this town and Rene Cyr son of Mr and Mrs P. A. Cyr of Hamlin; also Miss Claire Duperry daughter of Mr and Mrs Aime Duperry of this town and Conrad Saucier son of Mr and Mrs Hilaire Saucier of Keegan.

Over five hundred people of this town attended an entertainment in honor of President Roosevelt's birthday, Tuesday evening in the Sacred Heart auditorium. The Silver Bell and Bow's bands were in attendance. There were musical and vocal specialties by local talent. Cards were played and a lunch served. The President's voice was heard over the radio at a late hour. The receipts of the evening were sent to the Warm Springs, Ga. Foundation for infantile paralysis. The committee in charge are grateful to Rev. P. Forestier for the free use of the school hall, and his cooperation in making the affair a success.

PASTOR HONORED BY CONGREGATION

MEMBERS OF ST. PAUL'S UNITED CHURCH HOLD SUPPER AND SOCIAL IN HONOUR OF REV. AND MRS. W. A. MACQUARRIE

One of the most delightful social functions ever held in St. Paul's United Church, was the supper and social held on Monday evening at six-thirty o'clock, in honour of the pastor, Rev. W. A. MacQuarrie, and Mrs. MacQuarrie.

All adult members and adherents of the Church received a special invitation to attend, and a large number availed themselves of this privilege to do honour to the pastor and his wife.

After supper, a short program of speeches, interspersed with musical numbers, was enjoyed. Rev. Mr. MacQuarrie addressed the gathering, and in a gracious manner thanked all for the honour accorded to Mrs. MacQuarrie and himself.

At the close of the program, an impromptu sing-song was held, which was greatly enjoyed by those taking part, and the other guests.

MADAWASKA, Me

POPULAR PLAY TO BE STAGED HERE SOON

A rib tickling comedy for the benefit of the Edmundston Band, will be presented by local artists at Star Theatre on March the 4th.

Edmundston Band will present "Aaron Slick from Funkin' Creek" an uproarious three acts comedy, at the Star Theatre March 4th, at 2 and 8 o'clock P. M.

Plenty of action and laughs, mingled with a good deal of human interest, will be furnished by the able local cast in this play.

Aaron Slick, not as green as he looks. Rupert McCabe, Wilburn Merridew, a crooked city speculator. Clifford Simms, Clarence Green, a mysterious young man. Hazen Horncastle, Mrs. Rosy Berry, an Oklahoma widow. Miss Bertha Albert.

Glady's May Merridew, a sweet young thing. Miss Cecile Matheson, The Girl in Red, Miss Salma David, Sis Riggs, a regular tomboy. Miss Anita Poiras.

The Band is in need of funds to carry on and improve their good work, and they surely need and merit your support. You will enjoy a good clean comedy and a fine musical program, and help the band boys by attending this show. Make it a point to be there.
