

STRAIGHT TALK TO ALL CAMPAIGNERS

Extra Cash Prize Offer Closes Tomorrow Night, and the Votes Issued on Subscriptions Do Not Have to be Published—No Matter What Your Standing in the Published List, Your Chance of Winning $50 is the Same as Anyone Else.

WE WANT YOU TO HAVE A PRIZE

Ask All Your Friends to Subscribe for The Standard—They are Only Waiting to be Asked—All Votes Count on Automobiles and Other Prizes—Winners Will be Announced at Once.

The Standard has been talking pretty straight to you about the campaign, and while some of you have become interested, others seem not to recognize this as an opportunity of a life time to secure something for nothing, so to speak. Be assured that we expect to profit more or less by this campaign, and the beauty of it is that we have so arranged it that you, too, may profit. And why not? Is it not better so? We are glad to be able to do this, as it will not only increase the circulation of The Standard, but will work to the benefit of all parties concerned. But we do advise those who expect to be among the winners at the close of the campaign to get their subscriptions in immediately. We do not want you to be disappointed when the final vote is counted, and for that reason we are continually advising you to do your very best. Only two more days now, until the cash prize offer will close. Between now and that time is the time to put in your hardest work. Don't let one single friend escape. Approach them all with your story. Don't let one refuse to subscribe. Don't let one immediately go to the next friend. Keep after them. You will never have cause to regret your work. And besides, you'll have something to remember The Standard by. That is just what we are after.

Here is the plan in detail, read it. Two hundred and fifty dollars in gold, free. Twenty-seven extra cash prizes offered by the St. John Standard. In the great $50,000 prize contest. The Standard offers twenty-seven extra cash prizes amounting to $250 to the contestants securing the largest number of votes issued on subscriptions between April 25 and Saturday, May 11, at 8 p. m.

There is the plan—
First prize, $500 ..... $500
Second prize, $250 ..... 250
Ten prizes, each, $100 ..... 1,000
Fifteen prizes, each, $50 ..... 750

First prize, $500 to contestant securing largest number of votes issued on subscriptions between April 25 and May 11, inclusive.
Second prize, $250 to contestant securing second largest number of votes issued on subscriptions between April 25 and May 11, inclusive.
Ten dollars each to the next ten contestants securing the largest number of votes issued on subscriptions between April 25 and May 11, inclusive.

Five dollars each to the next fifteen contestants securing the largest number of votes issued on subscriptions between April 25 and May 11, inclusive.

All votes count on the automobiles and other prizes.

In case of a tie for any of these prizes, the prizes of equal value will be given to contestants who tie for same.

Send or bring in your subscriptions to the Contest Department of the St. John Standard, as you receive them. A careful count will be kept of all votes issued on all subscriptions turned in. The votes secured to date during the above mentioned dates. A full credit will be given you on the books as the subscriptions are turned in. The votes secured to date toward the regular prizes also, and do not interfere in any way with your chance of winning one of the regular prizes. Like the other votes issued on subscriptions, you do not have to publish them at once, but you may hold them and publish them at any time up to the last day of the contest as heretofore. No matter what your standing in the list of contestants may be, you have an equal chance to win one of these cash prizes. The awards will be given to the winning contestant on Monday, May 13. Winning one of the extra cash prizes does not interfere with the ten (10) per cent. cash commission paid to non-winners of one of the regular prizes.

New contestants wanted. Enter now and win a cash prize. How Votes Will be Issued.

Votes are allowed subscribers who pay for three months or longer to The Standard. Votes will be given for new, old or arrears. Candidates are not restricted to getting subscriptions or votes in their own particular district, but may secure subscriptions in any part of the world, and if cash accompanies the order, it will be issued in proportion to the length of the subscription, as per the schedule printed in the Standard. Candidates in one district do not compete with candidates in any other district except in the instance of the capital prizes and the division of prizes as published in the Standard, that every contestant has an equal chance of winning one of the Ford automobiles or one of the other prizes. Everyone who is of good character and a resident of one of the districts, married or unmarried, old or young, is eligible to compete in this circulation campaign. This means that both men and women are acceptable candidates.

10 Per Cent. Cash Commission Paid.
You can't lose in this campaign—that is impossible, there are 25 awards of $500 each, and if you win, you will get $500. The Standard will pay you ten per cent. cash commission on the gross amount of subscription money you will collect if you remain actively in the campaign until the end. The campaign thus works both ways—a prize contest and a very lucrative position. If you want an automobile, enter your name; if you want a piano, enter your name; enter the campaign no matter what you want; you can't lose; enter anyway. Send in your name or that of a friend to day.

Information and Conditions of Campaign
Nomination may be made by coupon or letter.

No employee of The Standard or member of employee's immediate family can enter or compete for any of the prizes.

The Standard reserves the right to reject any nominations. Nomination may be made at any time up to the last week of the contest.

Vote coupons for different amounts will be published in coming issues of The Standard, which when neatly cut out, filled in and brought or mailed to The Standard Circulation Campaign Dept., will count for the amount printed therein.

Votes cannot be purchased. Votes cannot be transferred. They must be secured through the regular channels according to the rules of the contest.

All remittances must be accompanied by the subscriber's name and address.

All votes issued on subscriptions are good until the end of the campaign and will be published at the discretion of the candidate or subscriber.

Cash must accompany all subscriptions.

tion where votes are to be issued. Candidates will be listed and divided into districts according to the division of territory.

Candidates may secure subscriptions anywhere.

Read over carefully the section referring to districts, determine which one you are in and send in your name on a nomination blank.

All questions concerning the districting of candidates are to be decided by The Standard.

The list of candidates and number of votes turned in will be published continually during the entire period of the competition.

No statement or promise made by any solicitor, agent or contestant varying from the rules or conditions published in The Standard will be received by The Standard Company, Ltd.

The Standard reserves the right to alter the rules and regulations during the competition if necessary for the protection of the best interests of both the candidates and the newspaper.

The Standard guarantees fair treatment to all contestants, and should any questions arise, a decision of the management will be considered final and absolute.

It is not necessary to be a subscriber to The Standard to enter this competition.

Persons who enter and take part in this circulation campaign will, therefore, bind themselves to abide by the following rules.
