St. John Boys Who Paid Empire Price on Field

The casualty list, issued Sunday night from Ottawa, contained the names of a number of New Brunswick boys, among whom were Corpeose H. Todd, Corp. W. T. Clarke and Private Harold Chamberlain.

Pte. Harold Chamberlain, the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius F. Chamberlain, 27 Clarence street. was killed on Aug. 12th.

He enlisted in St. John on July 15th, 1915, in the 55th Battalion, but was transferred into the 60th Battalion, Montreal. Prior to enlisting Pte. Chamberlain, who was only twenty-one years old, was in the employ of Maxwell and Stella at home.

of Popular Demonstration.

A meeting was held yesterday morning in connection with the garden fete to be held on the barrack green on Labor Day for patriotic purposes. Representatives from the various societies interested were present. A report was read from the Trades and Labor to look after matters connected with the fete. The services of the Temple and St. John Brass bands have been engaged and it is hoped to be able to secure the City Cornet band as well. Col. Guthrle has consented to give the co-operation of the overseas forces in the city for the occasion, Application will be made for the use of the exhibition buildings in case the weather should not be suitable for an outdoor celebration. The grounds committee will meet the ladies of the various societies on the barrack green on Labor Day for patriotic purposes.
