BALTIMORE, July 9. Last evening an excursion party of the Asbury Methodist Episcopal church, consisting of several hundred men, women and children, returning from a picnic through East Baltimore in a procession headed by a band of music. A party of white boys threw stones at the colored children. This culminated in a fight and much disorder. At the corner of Bank and Exter streets both white and colored persons engaged in a melee. A number persons engaged in a melee. A number of stones were thrown by each and it is reported that several shots were fired.
Three or four colored persons were badly cut and bruised by stones, but no fatal results ensued. The disturbance was finally quieted by the police who arrested abused and struck her;

New York, July 10. -Gold opened at The Kennebeccasis Regatta---Brown

Scull -- The Paris Crew to Row. The prospects of having a first-class regatta this fall are now very good, and it is hoped that a number of foreign crews will come to make the affair more interesting. The money required will be forthcoming without any doubt, and different crews have offered to row in the races. It will probably come off about the 15th of September as more crews can be present at that time than at any other. George Brown writes to the sporting papers of the States that his business will prevent him making a race before the last of August, and, as he has promised to come over here and bring an amateur crew with him, September will sult him better. Scharff has challenged Beautiful New Goods Fulton to row a single scull race for $1000. Fulton is willing to row with any men in a regatta, but is not inclined to make a special match, and it is likely that they can be brought together in the regatta. Brown is determined to go for the prize for a single scull against all comers. The Paris Crew will be ready for work by the date mentioned, and will be prepared as usual to give a good account of themselves. The committee and subscribers hold meetings every Tuesday evening, and are anxious to see as many as possible present to take an interest in the affair.
