The trick that the boys played on Dr. Wheeler, at Holden, Mass., was to set the to a load of har upon which he was rading. It burned beautifully, the horse ran away, and, to cap the climax of fun, the doctor fell off and broke his leg. That morable day for the boys. A sensational religious event in Sa francisco was the participation by a Presbyterian, a Unitarian, and a Congregationalist elergyman and a Jewish rabbi in the installation of a Universalist pastor. Several of the sectarian newspapers think that liberality was carried too

A big brother in Pottsville has been brought to shame. His sister had a beau who was obnoxious to him. One dark night on the steps she seemed to be af fectionately kissing this beau good night. The brother crept up softly and kicked hard, and down fell an elaborate scare-

The other day Bishop Haven took an under advantage of a gushing youth at Marysville, in Marion county, Iowa. The Bishop was dedicating a Methodist Church and soliciting subscriptions for it, and a certain young lady in the congregation would marry him he would give $500 to the church. And the Bishop blurted it right out in meeting, and the young lady, like Barkis, aunounced that she was willing.

Considerable attention has been directed to a statement of Lord Salisbury that a new coalfield has been discovered in India containing 17,000,000 tons of coal at a depth of 200 feet. This coalfield is situated in Nagoore, and will be available for Bombay by the rallway which connects these two cities. But there is a still more important discovery of a coalfield containing 24 millions of tons in the Kummum district. It is stated that the Conseil General of Haute Savoie have definitely fixed upon Haute Savole have definitely fixed upon the railway project that will unite Chamounix with the frontier of Geneva. Leaving Chamounix the line will take the direction of Tayet, Sallanches, Cluse and Marignier. From this point the line will bifurcate; one branch will follow the valley of the Giffre, passing by Cornan, St. Ivoire, Ronne, and Annemasse; the other will continue along the valley of the Arve, pass by Bonneville, and join the line to Annecy at or near La Roche. It is said that the ladles of the leading Bonapartist families in Paris are now Bonapartist families in Paris are now working on a carpet which they intend to offer as a New Year's gift to the Empress Eugenie. This carpet is composed of squares of fine embroidery, each the size of a carte-de-visite photograph. Each lady is to work one square: those who are in possession of armorial bearings are to embroider their arms on their portions, while those who are not entitled to such distinctions are simply to work their monograms. The different sections are to be joined by golden braid comprodered with violets, and the whole carpet is to be edged with a broad border of similar colors and design. Thus do the female partisans of the Empire design to deposit their homage not only at but under the feet of their liege lady.
