"FIRE INSURANCE.—The New York Observer contains a high encomium on the Continental Fire Insurance Company of New York. The Company is formed on the Mutual Stock plan by which the accumulation on the capital is regularly divided amongst those who are insurers. The position of the Company may be learned by the following statement:—July 1, 1860, Gross assets, $993,280.28; Liabilities, $14,732.44. Every prudent house-keeper will endeavour to effect an insurance on his property, so that in case of accident by fire he and his family may not be left destitute and dependent on his friends.

"Mr. James Whitman, Halifax, is agent for the above office for Nova Scotia."—Christian Messenger.
