ANNIVERSARY

On Sunday night last this church was filled to overflowing, even after extra chairs had been provided, by a most appreciative congregation. The Methodist and Presbyterian churches closed for the event.

Rev. Mr. Garbutt (the Methodist minister) read the lesson from the Old Testament and Rev. Mr. Paton

(the Presbyterian minister) read the lesson from the New Testament. The service was conducted through the incumbent, Rev. T. J. Charlton; who delivered the sermon, taking for his text the 1st verse of the 12th chapter of Romans. He preached from the chancel steps without notes or book, and people were heard to say as they left the church that "it was a masterpiece." He dwelt specially on the word "sacrifice"-cons cration of prayer altar and in the public assem ground of unity for all Christians-at the foot of the Cross where the one true sacrifice, propitiation and satisfaction was made for the sins of the whole world. Miss Moss presided t the organ most efficiently. There was a full choir; and Miss Jessie Humphries in her clear and splendid voice sang the solo in the anthem and another beautiful number alone. The hymns and other music were rendered without a
