Beaverbrook Rink, whitewashing University of New Bruns- on the other. That was in the third period when Ed Mac- flanked on the right wing by Coombes of Bathurst. wick Red Devils 7-0 in New Brunswick-Prince Edward Island Donald tallied on a clean breakaway while his team had only

On 2nd, 3rd Lines Intercollegiate Hockey League action.

The Saints from Charlottetown left no doubt about their supremacy on this occasion, pumping home two goals only Dave Todd of UNB. 36 seconds apart during the third minute of play and supplementing them with five more before the curtain fell.

Dave Todd of UNB. Saints goaltendering up his shutout. In

The victory was St. Dunstan's second in as many nights. St. Dunstan's unbeaten after the first half of its schedule.

The Red and Black downed Mount Allison University 4-1 in its opener at home.

Lineup

Inchatnam. The clean sweep left ings between the same schools. A winter back, UNB and St. St. Dunstan's—Goal, Shepherd; defence, L. MacDonald, Dunstan's split two squeakers. Saints won 5-3 here but Hachey, Mullin, J. MacDonald; forwards, Davey, J. R. MacDonald Vaillen.

Davey, J. R. MacDonald Vaillen. Twenty-four hours earlier, the Islanders had shaded St. its opener at home.

night. Mount Allison, the defending champion six, will be the opposition for UNB on the Beaverbrook freeze.

Gaston Roy's four point featured St. Dunstan's' 11 scor- from Ontario, Kingston to be exact. ing awards. Roy rifled two goals, the third and the last, and heiped Paul Davey initiate the net-finding at 2:04 and passed to Jean Veilleau for the fifth marker.

The other St. Dunstan's scores were engineered by John R. MacDonald, Ed MacDonald and John MacDonald.

Tempers often flared in the loosely-played game and 20

Tempers often flared 12:03, Caldwell 12:03, Allen 15:52, Caldwell (major) 16:10, Roy 16:16, Savoy 16:16, McNutt 19:26.

Tempers often flared 12:03, Caldwell 12:03, Allen 15:52, Caldwell (major) 16:10, Roy 16:16, Savoy 16:16 minors and two majors.

rolled to its third straight victory Saturday night at Lady and it was Saints, not Devils, who were playing down a man Ketch from Fredericton worked to Mockler's left and was ing up his shutout. Indecision in the attacking zone cost Devils Fleiger of Bathurst. Spare forward was Jim Weldon of Newmany chances and errant shooting offset more.

The easy SDU victory was in contrast to last year's meet-

For UNB, the loss was the second, in two games. The UNB puckchasers are predominately New BrunsWickers with only four members of Saturday night's squad Lalor; forwards, Mockler, Ketch, Coombes, Allen, McNutt, Tommies had drubbed Red Devils 5-1 last week in Chatham, hailing from outside the province. Defenceman Mick Lalor Dickie, Lyons, Caldwell, Fleiger. Red Devils continue their slate at home next Saturday is from Winnipeg, Man., while centre Ed Allen and right t. Mount Allison, the defending champion six, will be winger Bill Dickie both hail from Nova Scotia. Allen's home sat out 10 minors and a major with Devils receiving seven shuffled his attacking lines for the effort against St. Dun-

Donald tallied on a clean breakaway while his team had only three men working against four Devils. In the penalty box at the time were Rod McInnis, J. R. MacDonald of SDU and and Jim McNutt of Fredericton on left wing. Doug Lyons was in the middle on the third line. The Fredericton lad was winger Bill Dickie both hail from Nova Scotia. Allen's home is Bridgewater and Dickie's is Kingsport. Doug Caldwell is from Ontario, Kingston to be exact.

Lineup Lemieux, Burns.

Between the pipes was Claude Brown of Lancaster. One defence combo was composed of Stan Trzop of Rothwell and John Sears of Fredericton. A second matched Hedley Savoy

John Sears of Fredericton. A second matched Hedley Savoy

Penalties: Veilleau 9:15, McNutt 9:15, Hachey 12:03, Lalor Summary

Penalties: McInnis (major) 5:51, Todd (major) 5:51, J. R. MacDonald 6:67, Mullin 12:04, Hachey 18:32.

Sketches, Shooting Marks of Hoop Team Here Are Thumbnail

BRANNEN, DONALD-Guard-Captain of this year's varsity squad Brandy learned his basketball at Fredericton High School and Mt. P.E.I. He received his basketball training at University High School. This is his second, year with the Red Raiders. Allison Academy. This is his fourth year as a member of the UNB in Edmonton. Jim is noted for his excellent rebounding ability, but Varsity. He also played one year of intermediate with the Fredericton is also a potent scorer. This is his third year with the Red Raiders.

Army team. He consistently had been the leading scorer for the DOLBON GIV Chard Guy is another product of Fredericton High School and Mt. P.E.I. He received his basketball training at University High School This is his second, year with the Red Raiders.

ARMNZER, RON—Centre—Former players of Fredericton High School and Mt. P.E.I. He received his basketball training at University High School and Mt. P.E.I. He received his basketball training at University High School and Mt. P.E.I. He received his basketball training at University High School and Mt. P.E.I. He received his basketball training at University High School and Mt. P.E.I. He received his basketball training at University High School and Mt. P.E.I. He received his basketball training at University High School and Mt. P.E.I. He received his basketball training at University High School and Mt. P.E.I. He received his basketball training at University High School and Mt. P.E.I. He received his basketball training at University High School and Mt. P.E.I. He received his basketball training at University High School and Mt. P.E.I. He received his basketball training at University High School and Mt. P.E.I. He received his basketball training at University High School and Mt. P.E.I. He received his basketball training at University High School and Mt. P.E.I. He received his basketball training at University High School and Mt. P.E.I. He received his basketball training at University High School and Mt. P.E.I. He received his basketball training at University High School and Mt. P.E.I. He received his basketball

Red Raiders. FORBES. JOHN-Centre-John is a hard working centre of the team. He learned his basketball at Fredericton where he was an all star for the province. This is his third year with the Red Raiders.

GORMAN, JOHN-Forward-John is a high scoring forward and good rebounder. John is also a product of Fredericton High School. This is his second year with the varsity squad. Recently he was named to the second all star squad of the Northeast College Conference Tournament.

MILLIGAN, JIM-Forward-Jim is a westerner now living in DOIRON, GUY—Guard—Guy is another native of Fredericton. He learned his basketball at St. Joseph's University. This is his second year with the Red Raiders. Guy is not only a letterman in basketball but also in track and football.

RHEINLANDER, LES-Guard-Bud came to UNB this year from Houlton, Maine, where he learned his basketball. One of the better ericton. defensive players on the team, he also has the most accurate twohand set shot on the squad.

Fredericton

Fredericton Fredericton

Fredericton

Fredericton

Woodstock

Bathurst

Saint Andrews Fredericton

Good performer Hard to beat

Steady player Never grieving

WIGHTMAN, BOB-Forward-Bob is another product of Fred-

MANZER, RON—Centre—Former players of Fredericton High School dominate the Red Raiders and Ron is yet another. Ron has a good hook shot and rebounds well. With the gaining of experience we expect Ron to be a star for the Varsity.

FITZMAURICE, DICK—Forward—Dick is playing his first year for the Red Raiders. He learned his basketball for St. Stephen High School and also played Junior and Intermediate basketball in Fred-mural and a couple of years playing with one of the city teams.

League Nears

End of Slate Sally Scovil Dot McDade Four games were played in the Shella Caughey intramural hockey league last Sun-Barbara Fisher and the property of the proper the nets for the losers.

Freshmen Engineers A went Shirley Ramey down to defeat at the hands of the Diane Johnstone Foresters 345's to the tune of 3-1, under the shooting of Fitzmaurice, Douglas and Chaisson. Chalmers blinked the light for the Foresters.

Senior Engineers defaulted to Sophomore Engineers due to lack of manpower, and came out on the short end of a 4-1 exhibition game

Standings to date: F A Pts 23 5 12 Team Foresters 21 21 14 18 17 Soph. Eng. 10 7 Science 18 15 18 11 F'men Eng. A Int. Eng. 18

Intramural Puck Have a Good, Long Look at Your Red Bloomers Season

Third year with team Third year with team

Third year with team

Second year with team Second year with team

First year with team First year with team

Third year with team Third year with team

Diane Edwards

F'men Eng. B 0 Schedule for February 5

4:30-Foresters 345 vs. Senior

Engineers. 5:30-Arts- vs. Freshmen Engi good deal of credit is Coach Jean Morrison. With nothing but praise for her girls, she states that she is 2:30-Junior Engineers vs. Intermediate Engineers. 3:30—Sophomore Engineers vs. Foresters 21.

Third year with team Moncton First year with team Forward First year with team First year with team Forward Rothesay Fredericton down to defeat at the hands of the strong Junior Engineers squad by virtue of a 6-1 score. Gogan and Soucy with two each, Vallis and Turnbull chalked up the Junior's count while Clark collected the lone loser's taily.

Intermediate Engineers outplayed Intermediate Second year with team Forward Moncton

Guard

Guard

Guard

Guard

Guard

Guard

Forward

Forward

The above was not seen by The Brunswickan at the Lady Beaver-brook Gym the last time Red Bloomers played basketball. However, The Brunswickan still has hope of discovering and diciphering the pictured lass and will take his hope along to the co-eds' next game.

Big Weekend for Skiers

the boards start flying in the Mari-time Intercollegiate and Open Ski

Meets. Don't let the non-participants be reluctant in heading for

Intermediate

Friday, 10 a.m.—Downhill. 2 p.m.—Slalom

SPORTING GOODS

- FOR THE BEST
- IN SPORTSWEAR
- AND SPORTING GOODS

C.C.M. SKATES - VIYELLA AND HUDSON'S BAY LEISURE WEAR HARRIS TWEED SPORT JACKETS

Fredericton's Bright and Cheery Music Store

RADIOS - TELEVISION, SALES AND SERVICE LAMPS - ELECTRIC WIRING Electric Appliances of all kinds GREENE'S V RADIO

CORNER KING & CARLEJON

DIAL 444

FLEMINGS

OF COURSE

and HABERDASHERS

Established 1889

HATTERS

If you see a select group of people drifting around the campus with assorted funny-looking hats Saturday, 10 a.m.-Cross Country (Starting at Gym) on their craniums, with mystic gleams in their eyes, don't be alarmed—don't panic—it's a contagious but pleasant disease known 2 p.m.—Jumping Sunday, 10 a.m.—Downhill

2 p.m.-Slalom A bus schedule for spectators for as "Hickoritis", winter variety. This disease will be at its critical events at the Royal Roads Hill is as follows: stage this coming week-end, when

Fri. 9:30 a.m.—(from residence) Sat., Feb. 4-1:00 p.m.day,.m.p Sat. 1:00 p.m.—(from residence) Sun. 9:00 a.m.—(from residence)

Intercollegiate and Open

the hill, for there is plenty of room at Royal Roads for both racing and social skiing. To insure the safety of both spectators and racers at this meet During the past week the more a map of the hill will be distributed eager (we think) members of this on the bus. This map will show eager (we think) members of this on the bus. This map will show club have faithfully checked the areas of maximum visibility and many trails, and, as a result, ski routes to get to them. It would be conditions were more than excellent last week-end. It was so good that not only were the UNB ski team members training, but Saint John and Fredericton skiiers as well.

still many students on the campus who may be a little hesitant to ski teams from Edmundston, St. Francis Xavier, Saint John, Mount Allison, Fredericton, and UNB competone does not have to be a good skier to enjoy the thrill of a good day's skiing. If you would like to improve your skiing, the UNB ski coach would be only too glad to help you. We are sure that after the first yield to your ski bill (and ing for the Maritime Intercollegiate and UNB Open trophies. The sche-dule of events is as follows: the first visit to your ski hill (and it is your hill) you will be only too eager to return THORP, WILLIAM (JUNIOR)—Junior is another player who learned his basketball at Fredericton High School. This is his first year with the Varsity squad. Junior's playing has been mostly intra-

VAUGHAN, STEVE-Forward-Steve, another Fredericton boy, was a former star at Fredericton High where he played for three Classy guard years. The team wit, Steve is a great morale builder on the squad. ood performer His play is noted by aggressive defensive play and an accurate outside

Adds strength Coming performer How Many Men Could Stand Up Always reliable Under This Training Slate?

Controls the backboard

Rothesay Always driving Well, for your info, the BrunsFredericton Welcome addition Miss Spirit Schedule for the UNB co-eds' swim together and Jane is confident the Legere. How many of your great, Championship is theirs this year if big, strong he-men could survive.

Well, for your info, the Brunsthat you strive for top speed with that you strive for top speed with each set.

Do 10 good racing starts. Drive for distance in the air on each start.

Practice turns at top speed for

with an all out effort.

Do 5 sets of the following with a swim session. Keep moving until full speed all out effort: 3 lengths of pool.

stand about in the cold after a swim session. Keep moving until full speed all out effort: 3 lengths of about in the cold after a swim session. Keep moving until full speed all out effort: 3 lengths backboard Are you a mere male? Do you Busy bee think the co-eds have a soft time Note—It is important that you do not rest longer than 3 minutes and

Finish your work-out by swimming 5 slow lengths with some stroke other than the one you will use in Swim 8 lengths slowly for warm-competition. After swimming avoid p. colds by wearing warm clothing Kick 5 lengths on flutter board and practical head dress. Do not

He says he does it by Steady Saving at the Bank of Montreal*

*The Bank where Students' accounts are warmly welcomed.

Fredericton Branch Queen & Carleton Streets DOUGLAS TROTTER, Manager

WORKING WITH CANADIANS IN EVERY WALK OF LIFE SINCE 1817