THE BRUNSWICKAN- 19

Rebels upset Dal.

The UNB Rebels Men's Volleyball Team pulled off an upset in AUAA League play last weekend. The best of five match started at 3 and lasted 2 1/2 hours. At the end of it all, UNB came out on top by a score of three games to two. The team to beat this year is said to be Dalhousie Tigers and UNB proved this was a feat they could accomplish. Dalhousie is ranked first in the AUAA and seventh in the CIAU.

Dal won the first two games by scores of 15-11 and 15-13. The first game lasted thirty-five minutes and this seemed to set the pattern for the rest of the day. The final three games went to the Rebels by scores of 16-14, 15-10, and 16-14.

Consistent playing was the reason for the Rebel win. Powerful outside hitting by captain Mike Phillips and rookie Tony Wells contributed greatly to the Rebel offense. Center blocking is also becoming a strong point in the REbels game and Paul Belanger and Pat Murray showed that they were capable in the middle. Bob Curran playing off-side could be seen to have put away many point gaining spikes.

Another strength which contributed to the Rebel win was the effective use of substitutions and time-outs by the coaches. Mr. Malcolm Early, Mr. Sonny Phillips and Mr. Perley Tozer used every chance they had to give some of the players on the floor a rest. These subs came in and showed © Lanny's they wanted to play. Many good plays were made by Guy Boisvert, Neil Cutcliffe, Marcel Maesson, and John Kiviste. This shows the Rebels to be a well-rounded team with bench strength that they can depend on.

The Rebels next match will be today when they travel to St. Johns Newfoundland to take on Memorial University in two matches. Next home match for the Rebels is Saturday, Feb. 16, at 2 p.m. against Memorial.

on road The UNB men's gymnastics team enter their second competition of the season this weekend. The Saltos travel to Moncton on Saturday to compete against Dalhousie University, University of Moncton and University of Laval.

UNB Saltos easily won their first meet of the year against Dal and Moncton. However, with Jeff Potts and Scott Hill out with injuries this weekend, it should be a much closer competition amongst the three AUAA teams. Laval University, led by Canadian team member Yves Dion are favoured to win the meet. UNB's top challengers will be Terry Laurence, Rick Weiler and Dan Beaman.

UNB's next meet will be at home on Feb. 2, 80 at 1 p.m. UNB South Gym. For further information con-tact Don Eagle, 454-3527 or 453-3532.

12:30 p.m. Unit and Individual Championships will be declared with points being awarded to the top six finishers in each event. Men's and Women's races will be held in the following events: Free Style Crescendo Relay, 25m and 50m backstroke, 25m and 50m breaststroke. 50m and 100m freestyle, 100m individual medley and 200m team medley. In addition to these regular events for a number of novelty co-ed relay events will be included. Teams for these relays must consist of 2 guys and 2 gals. An Awards reception for all participants will be held immediately following the meet. Post registration will be accepted if there is room beginning at 12 p.m. in Room A116, L.B. Gym. For further information contact the Intramural Office, 453-4579.

Pat Murray watches as team captain Mike Phillips spikes the ball against Dalhousie. UNB knocked off the fifth ranked Tigers 3 games to 2.

a.m. The Championship game is nday at 2 p.m.

UNB is the favourite for the urnament however, little is own about the teams from AO, Concordia, and Dalhousie so e Blazers are not expecting any alkaway victories.

All games will be played at the JC. Admission for a daily pass is) cents for students and one llar for adults. Hardly a high ice for a day of enjoyment. So me on out and cheer on UNB's her Hockey team!

others. UNB played a strong blocking game led by Sue Woods nd Diane Baker but the offense could not match the taller and more expereienced Dal team.

On Saturday night the Reds played again in make up game. UNB once again lost 3 games to 1. The Reds played more consistent Volleyball and the scores were much closer and provided for exciting volleyball. Sharry Martin get it together to win any of the of beating Dal. With more practice and stiff competition, the Reds should be ready to challenge at the intercollegiates.

> This weekend the Reds travel to Halifax for a tournament at the Daplex. the Reds will meet good competition and they hope to put some consistency into their playing. Next home game for the Reds is Feb. 2 against Mmemorial from Newfoundland.
