PART III Essay (13 points)

As you all know, in constructing a response to a University-level essay question, it is more than imperative to use correct grammar, good language and a priori syntax which, as usual, is based on the full sentence outline you will design before responding to the aforegiven query. Be sure to tactfully ponder the various angles from which you might attack the question. Do not mix metaphors. Deal only with materials dealt with in class or the texts. Do not improvise. Think. Good luck.

1) Describe some of the humorous devices used in "When the Buffalo Find the Tree" and show how some of these devices are related to realism.

2) How will you explain the slow progress of civil rights in the U.S. to an indignant African student? This student argues that the government should simply pass a law outlawing segregation and then carry it out, by force if necessary. You should try to explain to him your understanding of

- a) federalism
- b) presidential power and
- c) legislative and judicial processes.

3) From Leonard Cohen's classic poem "Susanne", we extract the following quotation "... Jesus was a sailor when he walked upon the water". Discuss this statement in relation to the contract of the Seafarers' International Union and navigational priorities on the St. Lawrence River, with emphasis on International Water Boundaries.

PART IV (know the empire)

You have been provided with a set of pastel pencils (blue, red, yellow, and black). Do not chew on or play with. Rather, use the appropriate color to shade in, on the map below.

- a) the free world
- b) the Red Menace
- c) the Yellow Peril and
- d) the teeming, uncivilized world.

If a map of the world has not been provided with this exam, draw, with 90 per cent accuracy, a landform sketch of Vancouver Island.

Indicate: Aegan country where the Truman Doctrine had helped restore classical democracy ... Asian Archipelago where we oversaw the elimination of upwards of a billion reds so as to show Third World nations that there's no business like American business ... Red Island which faces invasion or nuclear annihilation because its bearded, illiterate leader is unable to read the Monroe Doctrine ... Middle Eastern country where the U.S. helped the leader to overcome the folly of oil nationalization ... sprawling Eurasian monolith once seen as menacing foe, whom we now flirt with in a power alliance above ideology ... Ilay latin nation which has consistently needed us to help re-define its notion of revolution ... English-speaking land whose Labor government has emulated American people's capitalism ... the U.S. leader sent marines to this Carribean Isle in 1965 because 51 Reds (13 of whom were adult males) threatened to undermine U.S. tourism ... small mountainous European state which (under the tricky, dicky guise of neutrality) plays a key role in maintenance of U.S. control of world financing ... nation whose popular African nationalist leader met with a CIA assassination overseen by Columbia University president Andrew Cordelier for the good of Africa.
