Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, C.M.G.

The Roxborough,

Ottawa,

Ont.

Dear Mr. King:-

Recently in conversation with Mr. Pardee, I acquainted him with some recent information concerning North Waterloo and yourself. At the time he made a note of it and expressed his intention of seeing you in connection therewith. If he has not done so, I would suggest that you get in touch with him next week, or if you happen to be in Toronto soon possibly you could drop in for a few moments and I will tell you all about it myself. It may be to your own interest and to the interest of the party to know about this matter soon.

Faithfully yours,

W. H. Adams
General Secretary.
