

Commissioners throughout, has, in my opinion, been the chief cause for the economical and successful carrying out so far of these important works, which in future years, I am confident, will show they are properly adapted for the requirements of first-class work.

I have the honour to remain,

Yours very obediently,

Robert S. Lee

Consulting Engineer.

1891, 1892
1893, 1894
1895, 1896

60

Henry