

- Garakonthié, an Iroquois chief, 25; baptized by Laval, 110.
- Habitants, wives of the, 54-5, 57-8, 59; syndic of the, 66, 67.
- Hôtel-Dieu, the, 11; Talon adds a wing to, 125.
- Iroquois, prove a scourge in New France, 2; preparations against, 17; impressed by Courcelle's expedition, 25, 27; make a treaty of peace, 37; and the brandy traffic, 80-1; request missionaries to be sent to them, 37, 95; threaten to unbury the hatchet, 105-6; and Outaouais hostilities, 109-110.
- Indians, effect of the brandy traffic on, 77, 80; their opposition, 80-2; Frenchification of, 91-2, 93-5.
- Jesuits' College, 10; its high standing in New France, 92.
- Jolliet, Louis, a promising pupil of the Jesuits' College, 92; sent by Talon on exploring expedition, 119.
- La Chesnaye, Charles Aubert de, 12; his declaration in favour of commercial freedom, 65.
- La Mothe, Captain de, his compensation for marrying and settling in New France, 56-7.
- La Mothe, Jacques de, fined for contravention of trade regulations, 65-6.
- Langelier, Sebastien, his disorderly wife, 70.
- La Peltrie, Madame de, and the Frenchification of the Indians, 93.
- La Potardière, Sieur de, reports favourably on iron ores in Canada, 124.
- La Salle, Robert Cavelier de, sent on exploring expedition by Talon, 113-15.
- La Tesserie, M. de, member of the Sovereign Council, 66.
- Laval, Monseigneur de, spiritual head of New France, 4, 11; on Sovereign Council, 16, 65, 70; his opposition to the brandy traffic, 77-81; referred to in Talon's instructions, 85; his great influence in Quebec, 86; obtains a decree imposing payment of tithes, 88-9; his interest in the Frenchification of the Indians, 91-2; his opinion of the Jesuits' College, 92; with Talon at Indian baptism, 125.
- Le Mercier, Father, superior of the Jesuits, 11; on the settlements on the St. Lawrence, 48.
- Le Mire, Jean, elected syndic of the habitants, 11, 68.
- Le Moyne, Charles, Baron de Longueuil, 14-15; in expeditions against the Mohawks, 30; and against the Senecas, 112.
- Lenoir, François, breaks the order of Talon concerning bachelors, 56.
- Louis XIV, not only king but ruler, 3; his interest in New France, 5, 21, 54, 99, 100; cost in men of wars of, 40; a bright period in his reign,