

Canvassing, etc.; (c) by posters in public places, shop windows, etc., placed there not more than two weeks in advance, and (d) by letters from pastors or official bodies of the various churches; (e) by pulpit, Sabbath School, and other announcements, regularly repeated as long in advance as possible.

(4). A Committee on Prayer. All God's work must be done in the spirit of prayer and in humble, trustful dependance on His enabling grace. The Committee on Prayer can do much to induce the Christian people to pray for the ministers, office-bearers, and members of the churches, for the Missioners and singers, and for the unconverted in the community. If they learn the possibilities and blessing of Intercessory prayer in this special effort, they are likely to continue to exercise the privilege and power after the campaign is over.

The Committee may organize Prayer Circles in different neighborhoods, or among particular classes of people, whose members will agree to pray in private, for blessing on the Mission, or who will meet weekly for united prayer. The Committee should also arrange for home or cottage meetings. In several congregations from ten to twenty of these have been held daily for at least a week. They were for prayer only, and
