

6. (86.) Every Dean of a Cathedral Church or Arch-deacon shall survey the Churches of his or their jurisdiction once in every three years in his own person, or cause the same to be done; and signify to the Churchwardens or to the Bishop what repairs they think necessary.

7. (88.) The Churchwardens shall suffer no meetings for worldly business or amusement to be held in the Church or Church-yard; neither the bells to be rung without good cause, to be allowed by the Minister of the Parish and by themselves.

VI.—CHURCHWARDENS AND INFERIOR OFFICERS.

1. (89.) All Churchwardens shall be chosen yearly in Easter week, by the joint consent of the Minister and the Parishoners, if it may be: but if they cannot agree upon such a choice, then according to the provisions of the Act 3 & 4 Vict., commonly called the Church Temporalities Act. And all Churchwardens, at the end of their year, or within fourteen days after their successors have been appointed, shall before the Minister and Parishoners give up a just account of such money as they have received, and expended.

2. (91.) No Sexton or other subordinate officer of the Church shall be appointed by the Churchwardens without the consent of the Minister of the Parish; and the Sexton, when chosen, shall be under the direction of the Minister and Churchwardens, to ring the bell for Divine Service, to attend upon them, to take due care of the books and other things pertaining to Divine Service, to keep the Church clean, and to keep order therein. And the said Sexton and other officers shall receive their wages from the Churchwardens.

VII.—MARRIAGES.

1. (99.) No person shall marry within the degrees prohibited by the laws of God, and expressed in a table set forth by authority in the year of our Lord 1563; and all marriages so made shall be held to be incestuous and unlawful.
